Indecent Publications Tribunal

In the matter of an application by the Comptroller of Customs for a decision in respect of the book "The Last Affair" by Mr and Mrs K., published by W. H. Allen and Co. Ltd., London.

There was no appearance of the applicant nor of the publisher's representative in New Zealand. Accordingly no submissions were made.

Decision of the Tribunal

This book is a detailed account, by each in turn, of a husband and wife's experience in the Masters and Johnson sex clinic, the "Reproductive Biology Research Foundation". They are a couple in love but inexpert in making love and through the fortnight's treatment find a satisfactory marriage relationship.

It is not clear whether this is a novel or a documentary but in any case there is nothing offensive in its manner of treatment—it has some humour and a little sense. The subject is beyond the range of interest of children (who are unlikely to read it) and its adult content is best indicated by an age restriction.

The Tribunal classifies this book as indecent in the hands of persons under the age of 18 years.

28 June 1972.

R. S. V. SIMPSON, Chairman.

No. 499

Decision of the Indecent Publications Tribunal

In the matter of the Indecent Publications Act 1963 and in the matter of an application by Seven Seas Pty. Ltd. for a decision in respect of the book "For Me" by Clavel Brand, published by Riverhaven Ltd., London.

Mr Downey, solicitor, appeared on behalf of the applicant and made submissions.

Decision of the Tribunal

Under guise of a scholarly investigation of fetishism this book is little more than a collection of "full, frank and unexpurgated case histories" related in sensational style and to very little purpose. The book is one to which section 11 (1) applies, in that its design is largely to provide opportunity for the recounting of stories of sexual perversion.

The Tribunal classifies this book as indecent.

28 June 1972.

R. S. V. SIMPSON, Chairman.

No. 495

Decision of the Indecent Publications Tribunal

There was no appearance of the applicant nor of the publisher's representative in New Zealand. Accordingly no submissions were made.

No. 496

Decision of the Indecent Publications Tribunal

There was no appearance of the applicant nor of the publisher's representative in New Zealand. Accordingly no submissions were made.

Decision of the Tribunal

This book, a "photographic story", has seven pages of worthless narrative; the rest is close-ups of twisted, perverted, grotesque, lesbian activity. This can serve none but a prurient interest.

The Tribunal classifies this book as indecent.

28 June 1972.

R. S. V. SIMPSON, Chairman.

Decision of the Tribunal

No. 498 Decision of the Indecent Publications Tribunal

Mr Downey, solicitor, appeared on behalf of the applicant and made submissions.

Decision of the Tribunal

The number of this magazine which is before us deals with a variety of topics connected with sex. The articles are informative; the letters, even if not genuine, are answered sensibly; the panel of consultants is made up of well-qualified men from reputable universities. There appears no reason to judge it indecent, but the intimate and adult nature of most of the subjects covered inclines us to impose an age limit.

The Tribunal classifies this book as indecent in the hands of persons under the age of 18 years.

28 June 1972.

R. S. V. SIMPSON, Chairman.

No. 499 Decision of the Indecent Publications Tribunal

Mr Downey, solicitor, appeared on behalf of the applicant and made submissions.

Decision of the Tribunal

This volume consists of two novelettes in the pseudo-Victorian pornographic genre. In spite of the special pleading in the foreword by John Savage, P.M.D., there is little in either story but salacious accounts of depravity and vice. The Tribunal classifies this book as indecent.

28 June 1972.

R. S. V. SIMPSON, Chairman.

No. 500 Decision of the Indecent Publications Tribunal

In the matter of the Indecent Publications Act 1963, and in the matter of an application by the Comptroller of Customs for a decision in respect of the book The Bikers by Alex Stuart, published by New English Library, London.

There was no appearance of the applicant nor of the publisher's representative in New Zealand. Accordingly no submissions were made.

Decision of the Tribunal

This novel is similar in style and content to another from the New English Library, Chopper, England's King of Angels, which has already been classified by the Tribunal in decision 350. The Bikers deals with rival motor cycle gangs as they approach and disrupt a rock-and-roll festival; it contains a large measure of ruthless brutality and crude language, which is inevitable in such a context. It is, however, not ill-written and sustains the tension of ugly lawlessness pitted against the violence of the law's restraint. The picture drawn is near enough to a true one to give sociological value to the book for any but the most immature reader; nowhere is the scene glamorised, but, in case the hero riding off into the noonday sun with his old woman behind him should seem heroic to children and invite emulation of some of his other exploits, some age restriction seems advisable.

The Tribunal classifies this book as indecent in the hands of persons under the age of 18 years.

28 June 1972.

R. S. V. SIMPSON, Chairman.

No. 501-3 Decision of the Indecent Publications Tribunal

In the matter of the Indecent Publications Act 1963, and in the matter of an application by the Comptroller of Customs for decisions in respect of the following books: Variety is the Space of Marriage by Jeffrey Rabb; The Laughing Lady by Lee Digby; There was Young Lady from Windmere by Waco Brazos; all published by Venice Publishing Corporation, California.

There was no appearance of the applicant nor of the publisher's representative in New Zealand. Accordingly no submissions were made.

Decision of the Tribunal

In these three books various sexual activities are described and savoured with unrelieved crudeness. They are debased and debasing.

The Tribunal classifies all three books as indecent.

28 June 1972.

R. S. V. SIMPSON, Chairman.

No. 504 Decision of the Indecent Publications Tribunal

In the matter of the Indecent Publications Act 1963, and in the matter of an application by the Comptroller of Customs for a decision in respect of the book Juliette de Sade by Maude Poiret, published by Universal Publishing and Distributing Corporation, New York.

There was no appearance of the applicant. Mr Downey, solicitor, appeared on behalf of the publisher's representative in New Zealand and made submissions.

Although the sexual incidents in this novel about a young girl's entrance into a world of pleasure and vice in Rome are neither as detailed nor as numerous as those in many novels rejected as indecent by the Tribunal, the tone is just as objectionable. The novel seeks to glorify what it presents and what it alludes to as the heroine delights in what she meets. The title and the cover material seek to capitalise on interest in bizarre sexual activities and there is no substance in the characterisation or plot (or reality in the setting) to give the emphasis on sexual and criminal exploitation any justifying context of artistic purpose.

The Tribunal classifies this book as indecent.

28 June 1972.

R. S. V. SIMPSON, Chairman.

No. 505 Decision of the Indecent Publications Tribunal

In the matter of the Indecent Publications Act 1963, and in the matter of an application by the Comptroller of Customs for a decision in respect of the book Woodstock by Richard Hubbard, published by Universal Publishing and Distributing Corporation, New York.

There was no appearance of the applicant. Mr Downey, solicitor, appeared on behalf of the publisher's representative in New Zealand and made submissions.

Decision of the Tribunal

In this novel about a rock festival there is strong, tense plotting and some much hackneyed, trivial treatment of the sensational events. The festival's mounting frenzy and its violent climax are portrayed with some detachment, but the sexual incidents, particularly those centred on the holidaying corporate lawyer and his pregnant wife who gets caught up in the festival, are related in crude excited detail. Taken as a whole the book deals with sex and violence in a manner that requires restriction on its circulation among younger readers.

The Tribunal classifies this book as indecent in the hands of persons under the age of 18 years.

R. S. V. SIMPSON, Chairman.

28 June 1972.

No. 506-9

Decision of the Indecent Publications Tribunal

In the matter of the Indecent Publications Act 1963, and in the matter of an application by the Comptroller of Customs for decisions in respect of the following books:

- Posh by Stephanie Gatos
- Cruel Lips by Marcus Van Heller
- The Bitch Witch by R. Charlton and A. Yuill
- The Prefect by P. N. Dedeaux

all published by Grove Press Incorporated, New York.

There was no appearance of the applicant nor of the publisher's representative in New Zealand. Accordingly no submissions were made.

DEcision of the Tribunal

These four paperbacks use the form of a novel to string together a succession of sexual episodes of various kinds, all related with great detail and relish. Each has a strong element of deviant sexual behaviour of some kind—group sex, violent sex, sado-masochism; but none of them has any claim to literary merit.

The Tribunal classifies all four books as indecent.

R. S. V. SIMPSON, Chairman.

28 June 1972.

AUDITORS’ CERTIFICATE

We have examined the balance sheet of Taranaki Savings Bank as of 31 March 1972, and the related profit and loss account for the year then ended. Our examination was made in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, and accordingly included such tests of the accounting records and such other auditing procedures as we considered necessary in the circumstances.

In our opinion, the accompanying balance sheet and profit and loss account present fairly the financial position of Taranaki Savings Bank as of 31 March 1972, and the results of its operations for the year then ended, in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles applied on a basis consistent with that of the preceding year.
