Rules of the Christchurch Stock Exchange Ltd.

Pursuant to section 11 of the Sharebrokers Act 1908, His Excellency the Governor-General in Council on 26 June 1972 approved the following rules of the Christchurch Stock Exchange Ltd.

RULES

Preliminary

1. The marginal notes hereto shall not affect the construction hereof and in these presents unless there is something in the subject matter or context inconsistent therewith:

"The Exchange" means the Christchurch Stock Exchange Ltd.

"in writing" and "written" include printing, lithography, and other modes of representing or reproducing words in a visible form.

"Month" means calendar month.

Words importing the singular number only include the plural number and vice versa.

Words importing the masculine gender only include the feminine gender.

"Association" means the Stock Exchange Association of New Zealand.

"Committee" means the committee of the Christchurch Stock Exchange Ltd. except where a contrary intention is specifically expressed.

"Member" means a member of the Christchurch Stock Exchange Ltd. and includes a country member except where a contrary intention is specifically expressed.

"Secretary" means the Secretary of the Christchurch Stock Exchange Ltd.

Constitution

2. The Christchurch Stock Exchange Ltd. (hereinafter called "the Exchange") shall consist of members holding a sharebroker's licence, and engaged in the purchase and sale of stock, shares, bonds, debentures, and negotiable securities. No member shall be a member of any other Exchange nor shall he be associated in any way directly or indirectly with a Stock Exchange that is not affiliated with the Stock Exchange Association of New Zealand.

Objects

3. The objects and purposes of the Exchange are to provide, regulate, and maintain a suitable building, room, or rooms in Christchurch for the promotion and facilitation of dealing in stocks, shares, bonds, debentures, and negotiable securities; underwriting and company flotations; to establish just and equitable principles in the transaction of business; to adjust controversies between its members; and to maintain uniformity in its rules and usages. Its funds are to be applied only for the purposes and objects herein set forth.
New Zealand Stock Exchange Association Rules

4. A person who is a member of non-member partners at the date of adoption of these rules and all persons subsequently making application for membership or approval as non-member partners shall be bound on election by the rules of the New Zealand Stock Exchange Association and such rules will be deemed to be part of these rules.

Members

5. The number of members shall be limited to 30, exclusive of country members, or such other number as may be decided by members in general meeting.

6. Any licensed broker carrying on business at a distance of not less than 20 miles from the Christchurch Central Post Office may apply to this Exchange to be admitted a member provided that this Exchange is the nearest metropolitan Exchange to his place of business. A country member shall be elected annually and shall pay an annual fee payable in advance. The privileges of country membership shall expire on the 31st day of December of each year. Country members shall have the privilege of doing business with any member of any affiliated Exchange, but shall not be entitled or eligible to attend any meetings of the Exchange except as a guest, and shall not be entitled to vote or hold office or have any voice in the control, management, or affairs of the Exchange.

Such portion of these rules as deal with membership, management, meetings, election of members, interest in and transfer of membership, and all the privileges thereof; but as soon as a candidate proposed by him shall be elected the resignation of such member shall take effect.

A country member shall have the subject to the rules of the Exchange, and he shall be deemed to be on the roll of the Exchange. The election of country members shall be carried out in the same manner as prescribed in the case of ordinary members. New applicants for country membership shall pay an entrance fee.

7. A candidate for membership must, except as otherwise provided, make written application and pay the entrance fee. The application must be signed by two members of 12 months' standing as proposers. He must prove to the satisfaction of the Committee that he is able to discharge all his liabilities and make good, from his own means, deficiencies in any of his transactions to the extent of $10,000 or such larger sum as the members may determine by resolution, or procure a guarantee to the satisfaction of the Committee. Failure to satisfy the Committee of the requirements of this rule shall result in suspension or exclusion from membership.

No account shall be taken of the cost or value of the membership in arriving at the total of a member or applicant for membership's assets for the purposes of this rule and the preceding one.

Transfer of Membership

9. Any member may propose a candidate for membership in his stead, provided he at the time of such proposal lodge with the Secretary a certificate of resignation of the member whose place he desires to take, and such certificate of resignation shall remain the property of the Exchange and the Committee and the Committee may, at any time, by resolution, require the candidate for membership to pay the amount due to the Exchange for any subscription, fine, or other liability owing by the late member in the second place, in payment of the claims of the Committee, bearing the Official Seal of the Exchange and the Committee, upon and not otherwise submit the name of the candidate for election by the members. The name of the candidate shall be notified in writing to members at least 7 days before the date of election. The ballot shall be taken in general meeting.

The Committee may at any time call upon any member to satisfy it that he is still able to make good, from his own means, deficiencies in any of his transactions to the extent of $10,000 or such larger sum as the members may determine by resolution, or procure a guarantee to the satisfaction of the Committee. Failure to satisfy the Committee of the requirements of this rule shall result in suspension or exclusion from membership.

No account shall be taken of the cost or value of the membership in arriving at the total of a member or applicant for membership's assets for the purposes of this rule and the preceding one.

Transfer of Membership

9. Any member may propose a candidate for membership in his stead, provided he at the time of such proposal lodge with the Secretary a certificate of resignation of the member whose place he desires to take, and such certificate of resignation shall remain the property of the Exchange and the Committee and the Committee may, at any time, by resolution, require the candidate for membership to pay the amount due to the Exchange for any subscription, fine, or other liability owing by the late member in the second place, in payment of the claims of the Committee, bearing the Official Seal of the Exchange and the Committee, upon and not otherwise submit the name of the candidate for election by the members. The name of the candidate shall be notified in writing to members at least 7 days before the date of election. The ballot shall be taken in general meeting.

The Committee may at any time call upon any member to satisfy it that he is still able to make good, from his own means, deficiencies in any of his transactions to the extent of $10,000 or such larger sum as the members may determine by resolution, or procure a guarantee to the satisfaction of the Committee. Failure to satisfy the Committee of the requirements of this rule shall result in suspension or exclusion from membership.

No account shall be taken of the cost or value of the membership in arriving at the total of a member or applicant for membership's assets for the purposes of this rule and the preceding one.

The name of the candidate shall be notified in writing to members at least 7 days before the date of election. The ballot shall be taken in general meeting.

The Committee may at any time call upon any member to satisfy it that he is still able to make good, from his own means, deficiencies in any of his transactions to the extent of $10,000 or such larger sum as the members may determine by resolution, or procure a guarantee to the satisfaction of the Committee. Failure to satisfy the Committee of the requirements of this rule shall result in suspension or exclusion from membership.

No account shall be taken of the cost or value of the membership in arriving at the total of a member or applicant for membership's assets for the purposes of this rule and the preceding one.
Exchange by a ballot in the manner heretofore provided, as if such partner were a member for admission to membership. In the event of such partner not being approved by the Exchange, the member shall dissolve the partnership with the partners or with such person as may be empowered or the dissolution of such partnership within 1 month after the taking of the ballot, the member or members remaining in partnership with the partner who has not been approved shall be deemed to have retired from the Exchange and to be no longer a member or members.

An approved partner shall have the right to attend all trading meetings of the Exchange and to make quotations and purchase or sell shares. He shall not be entitled to attend or vote at any general meeting of the Exchange. Every rule regulating or relating to transactions between members, between members and non-members, or to the obligations of members to other members, or to members to the Exchange as to the conduct, business practice, or ethics of members, shall bind an approved partner as if he were a member.

The members at a general meeting may, on the recommendation of the Committee, resolve to withdraw the approval of any partner who has been guilty of conduct which, in the opinion of the Committee, justifies such withdrawal. Such withdrawal shall not have a vote at any meeting, or any voice in the management of the Exchange. The Chairman or Vice-Chairman may withdraw such approval at any time.

A clerk so admitted to official meetings shall be deemed to be the agent of his employer, and the member on whose application he is admitted shall be responsible for all the transactions of the said clerk.

A member failing or neglecting to report to the Chairman as above specified shall be liable to be fined a sum not exceeding $400, or to be suspended at the option of the Exchange.

Nothing in this rule shall be deemed to require any member who is also a member of the Fidelity Fund Board to disclose information which is confidential to that Board.

The Committee shall have power to investigate the accounts of any member and of any partner who has been admitted as an approved partner of a member, for the purpose of making quotations and the purchase and sale of shares on behalf of such member and in his stead, but for no other purpose. Such authorised clerk shall be subject to the rules and usages of the Exchange, but shall not have a vote at any meeting, or any voice in the management of the Exchange. The Chairman or Vice-Chairman may withdraw such approval at any time.

26. A clerk so admitted to official meetings shall be deemed to be the agent of his employer, and the member on whose application he is admitted shall be responsible for all the transactions of the said clerk.

27. A clerk shall not be eligible for admission unless he be at least 20 years of age.

28. A member may, by a letter addressed to the Secretary, withdraw the authority to his clerk to act, but his responsibility shall continue until such withdrawal shall have been notified to the members in writing.

(a) If the clerk of any member commits any violation of any usage of the Exchange, or of the letter or spirit of the rules, the clerk in addition to its powers over such member conferred by these rules, may at its discretion call upon such member to dismiss the clerk from his employment within such time as the Committee thinks fit.

(b) Without the permission of the Committee first had and obtained, no member shall at any time during a period of 2 years after the date of a resolution of the Committee under paragraph (a) of this rule employ any clerk dismissed by a member in accordance with its terms.

(c) Any member who is called upon under the provisions of this rule to dismiss any clerk, and who fails to do so within the time mentioned, shall be liable to be dealt with by the Committee under the provisions of these rules.

(d) Before the Committee gives any direction under this rule, the Committee shall have power to order that all open transactions, including time bargains, between any member and any other person, or between any member and any other member, in default such stock or shares as he may have contracted to sell or purchase. The Chairman shall charge current rate of brokerage to the defaulter, and such brokerage shall be paid to the Committee from the estate of another member in default. All surpluses in the hands of members resulting on the closing of open transactions with a member in default shall be paid to the Committee.

34. The Committee shall distribute as soon as possible amongst members, creditors of the member in default, the surpluses received from other members on his account, and all moneys due to him out of funds in the hands of the Committee from the estate of another member in default.

Distribution of Assets of Ex-Members

35. The Committee, in dividing amongst members, creditors of a late member, the proceeds received by them on sale of a membership, after deducting all liabilities due to the exchange, or in dividing amongst members, creditors, and non-members resulting on the closing of transactions open at the time of default, and also on all moneys which may become payable to a member in the event of the committee being satisfied that a broker, either in Christchurch or elsewhere, has failed to meet his engagements, the said broker shall be subject to the rules and usages of the Exchange, or of the letter or spirit of the rules of the Exchange.

36. Claims on the estate of a resigning, retiring, or deceased member, that do not arise from transactions under these rules, shall not be recognised by the Committee until all claims that have arisen from transactions under the rules shall have been satisfied.

37. A member shall not, without the consent of the Committee, employ in his business a former member who has made default or who has been expelled from membership for any reason, unless such person shall have made an arrangement with his creditor satisfactory to the Committee.

Non-Members—Failure to Meet Engagements

38. Non-members shall pay for all stocks or shares purchased on their account before 2 o'clock on the day following the purchase, unless an agreement be made in writing to the contrary.

Should a purchaser, not a member, fail to pay the amount due on his purchase before 2 o'clock, his broker shall be at liberty, at any time thereafter, at his or his option, either to sue such purchaser for breach of contract, or to re-sell the securities in any manner and upon such terms and conditions as he or they may think proper and to sue for the difference and all loss and expense consequent upon such re-sale, whether the same shall be made immediately on such failure to answer a charge or at any time thereafter; and all demands which the seller, or his broker, or the purchaser, broker may sustain thereby shall be recoverable by him, or them, from the purchaser as and for liquidated damages, and it shall not be necessary to prove any such actual losses.

39. In the event of any person, not a member, failing to meet any engagement with a member of the Exchange, the member may apply to the Committee to have such person suspended, as a debtor, and the Committee shall enquire into the case and, if satisfied that such default has been made, shall post the said person and announce to the members that he is in default.

40. A member shall not transact business for a non-member who has been announced to the members as a defaulter, unless such person shall have made an arrangement with his creditor or creditors satisfactory to the Committee.

Management

41. The management of the Exchange shall be vested in a Committee consisting of the Chairman, Vice-Chairman, the immediate past Chairman and four other members, and such Committee shall have (subject to these rules) the direction and control of the affairs of the Exchange, and they shall forthwith provide a Common Seal for the Exchange, and they shall have power from time to time to destroy the same and to make a new seal therefor, and they may make regulations for the use and safe custody of the Common Seal, provided always that every instrument to which the seal shall be affixed shall be signed by at least two members of the Committee, and counter-signed by the Secretary or some other person appointed by the Committee.

42. In the event of any member of the Committee other than and excepting the Chairman and Vice-Chairman being absent from the transactions of the Committee, without the leave of the Chairman or, in his absence, the Vice-Chairman, his seat thereon shall be declared vacant. Meetings of the Committee shall be held at such place and at such times as the Committee for the time being shall determine.

43. The Committee shall be elected annually at the annual general meeting by a majority of the members of the Exchange present and voting and shall hold office until the election of a new Committee at the annual meeting in the following year. A Chairman and Vice-Chairman shall be elected at the annual general meeting and shall hold office until the election of a new Chairman and a new Vice-Chairman at the annual meeting in the following year. Each such election shall be by ballot and the persons elected shall take office immediately after the close of the annual general meeting at which they are elected. At each meeting the Chairman, Vice-Chairman, and all other members of the Committee shall retire from their office and be deemed to have vacated their seats therein, but any member desiring to be or to become a candidate for office must be proposed by one member and seconded by another member, and the election must be held at such place and at such times as the Committee for the time being shall determine.

44. A member of the Committee shall not at any meeting take any part in any proceedings relating to any complaint concerning such member, or otherwise having reference to the conduct of such member, or relating to any other matter in which such member is interested, and such member shall not be entitled to vote at any subsequent meeting of members dealing with any such subject or matter.

45. A member of the Committee shall not take part in any of its meetings pending the investigation of a charge affecting himself.

46. The surviving or continuing members on the Committee, notwithstanding any vacancy in their number, may act until the vacancy be filled up.

47. At meetings of the Committee all questions shall be decided by a majority of the members present.

Treasurer

50. The Secretary shall keep the accounts and act as Treasurer and shall have the custody of all books and papers. He shall present at each annual general meeting a statement of the finances of the Exchange to the end of the previous year, duly audited.

Chairman

51. The Chairman, or in his absence the Vice-Chairman, shall preside at all meetings of the Exchange and of the Committee, but in the event of both being absent the members present shall elect a Chairman for that occasion.

52. The Chairman of any meeting shall have entire control thereof and shall regulate the order and manner in which the business shall be conducted. The vote of the Chairman shall be final in all cases submitted to him.

53. In all cases, at any meeting when on a division the votes are equal, the Chairman shall have a second or casting vote.

54. In the event of any member or members obstructing the business of the meeting or being guilty of any breach of etiquette, of which the Chairman shall be the sole judge, the Chairman shall have power to inflict such fine, not exceeding $10, as he may deem advisable.

Occasional Vacancy

55. Any occasional vacancy in the Committee, or in the offices of Chairman or Vice-Chairman, shall be filled up by a special general meeting of members to be summoned by the Committee for that purpose without unnecessary delay.

Power of Committee to Procure Information Relative to Matters under Investigation

56. Members and their clerks when required so to do by the Committee, shall attend any meeting of the Committee and there shall give such information as may be in their possession relative to any matter under investigation.

57. The Committee shall have full and absolute power, in the event of a complaint being made or on its own information, which in its opinion justifies such procedure, to call upon any member to produce for their inspection all books, letters, telegrams, or copies thereof, and other documents in his possession relating thereto, and he shall, without delay, produce them for inspection accordingly.

Violation of Rules and Penalties

58. The Committee shall take cognizance of all violations of these rules, whether in letter or spirit. Any member found by them to be guilty of such violation, or who may fail to comply with any decision or ruling of the Exchange or of the Committee, or who, in the opinion of the Committee is or has been guilty of conduct unworthy of a member, shall be liable to be fined or suspended, or fined and suspended from membership by resolution of the Committee; or should the matter be of such a nature as to justify expulsion, the Committee shall report accordingly to the members at a special general meeting called for that purpose. It shall be competent for the said special general meeting to confirm the Committee's recommendation and expel the offending member, or to deal with him by fine or suspension.

59. The Committee for the time being may, in their absolute discretion, and in such manner as they may think fit, notify or cause to be notified to the public that any member has been expelled, or has become a defaulter, or has been suspended, or has ceased to be a member.

Funds

60. The Committee shall have full control over the funds of the Exchange and shall pay therefrom all current expenses and outgoings, and any surplus accruing shall be added to the capital of the Exchange; and all monies received shall be paid into a bank account and all accounts, salaries, etc., shall be paid by cheques drawn on such account. The Committee may fix the times as the Committee for the time being shall determine, and in such manner as they may think fit, and the Committee may also for the purposes of the Exchange bow money from the bankers of the Exchange on overdraft or otherwise, with or without security. It shall not be necessary for any intending lender to see or enquire as to the purposes or objects for which moneys borrowed are required.
61. The Committee shall invest the funds as they may in their absolute discretion think advisable, and shall have power to invest in the Exchange may from time to time determine, shall be paid the execution by him of the duties of the office, unless the same shall have happened through his own willful default or neglect.

64. The Exchange shall out of the assets of the Exchange indemnify the Secretary, Managers, and other officers, attorneys, agents, or trustees of the Exchange for the time being, their heirs, executors, and administrators from and against all costs, charges, and damages which they, the said Secretary, Managers, or other officers, attorneys, agents, or trustees, respectively, may properly incur or be put upon in the performance of their respective duties or in carrying into effect the orders of the members of the Committee or of any general meeting.

65. An entrance fee of $50 or such other sum as the Exchange may from time to time determine, shall be paid by all candidates for admission. In the event of a candidate being rejected, his entrance fee shall be refunded.

66. An annual subscription, which shall be fixed at each annual general meeting, shall be made payable at such time and in such manner as the Committee may determine. New members shall pay on election the subscription which shall have been levied for the current year, except in the case of the Election after 30 June who shall pay half the annual subscription.

67. Any member not paying his subscription within 2 calendar months after the same shall have been levied shall be charged an additional sum equal to the amount of the subscription levied, and if such additional sum together with the subscription is not paid within four calendar months from the time when such subscription was levied, he shall be deemed to be suspended from the privileges of his membership and shall continue so suspended until such time as he has paid the subscription and the additional sum charged through non-payment of the subscription within 12 months of the date of which the subscription first became payable, of such subscription and any additional sum payable as aforesaid, he shall immediately, upon the expiration of such 12 months, ipso facto cease to be a member and his seat shall be forfeited to and become the property of the Exchange.

68. The membership of a resigning member, from the date of resignation until the election of his nominee, shall, even upon the payment in full of the subscription of the Committee in its sole discretion may decide, if they are satisfied that the interests intend to dispose of the deceased member's membership and shall continue so suspended until such time as his seat shall be forfeited to and become the property of the Exchange present and voting at a special general meeting, to be subject to the same annual subscription as that of existing members except in cases otherwise provided for in these rules. A poll was demanded.

69. Any general meeting shall have power inter se to adjourn from time to time as may be found necessary. Whenever an appointment to a meeting has been decided on, notice thereof shall be given in such manner as may be determined by the Chairman of the meeting.

70. The committee may agree to waive fees payable by the members of a deceased member for up to 1 year from the date of death of such member, or such longer period as the Committee may determine.

71. The Committee shall have power to purchase with the funds of the Exchange, at such price as it may think fit, any membership offered to the Exchange for sale, and sell the same at its discretion.

72. A membership purchased by the Committee shall not be liable for the annual subscription whilst held by them.

Annual General Meetings and Special General Meetings

74. The financial year of the Exchange shall close on the 30th day of September. A general meeting of members shall be held annually not later than the month of December, at which the business shall be to receive from the Treasurer a balance sheet showing the financial position of the Exchange; to elect a committee and officers for the ensuing year, and also generally to conduct any business provided for in these rules.

75. At any annual general meeting, after all business herein provided for shall have been disposed of, it shall be competent for any member to bring under the notice of the meeting any business or matter within the objects or purposes of the Exchange, and to give notice of any proposition to be considered at a future meeting.

76. A special general meeting may be called by the Committee at any time.

77. A special general meeting shall be called by the Committee upon the receipt of a requisition addressed to the Secretary requesting them to do so, signed by at least five members and stating the business for which such meeting is required; and if the same shall not be determined by the Committee upon the receipt of a requisition addressed to the Secretary, Managers, or other officers, attorneys, agents, or trustees, respectively, may properly incur or be put upon in the performance of their respective duties or in carrying into effect the orders of the members of the Committee or of any general meeting.

78. Any general meeting shall have power inter se to adjourn from time to time as may be found necessary. Whenever an appointment to a meeting has been decided on, notice thereof shall be given in such manner as may be determined by the Chairman of the meeting.

79. No other business shall be transacted at a special general meeting except that stated in the notice convening the meeting, and no resolution shall be passed, or other business transacted, which is not included within the objects and purposes for which the meeting is convened. No amendment shall be allowed upon any resolution contained in the notice convening any meeting not directly pertinent thereto.

80. No business shall be transacted at any adjourned meeting other than the business left unfinished at the meeting so adjourned.

81. Every member present on a show of hands and upon every poll shall have one (1) vote, and all questions shall be decided by a majority of the members present and voting, except in cases otherwise provided for in these rules. No proxy may represent a member, duly authorised, in writing, and it shall be handed either to the Secretary or the Chairman of the meeting at any time before the commencement of the meeting. No person shall be eligible to vote who is a minor in law, or is a member of the Chirstchurch Stock Exchange. No proxy may represent more than one (1) member at any meeting.

By-laws

82. The members in general meeting may make by-laws to regulate the conduct of the Exchange provided that such by-laws are not inconsistent with these rules or the rules of the Stock Exchange Association of New Zealand.

83. The operation of the Trading Room shall be regulated by by-laws which shall be made or amended from time to time by the Committee for this purpose.
85. Notice of any meeting required to be given under these rules will be given in writing and delivered by post or by being placed in the member's box in the Trading Room.

86. The notice required for a general or annual general meeting or special general meeting shall be 7 days, and for a committee meeting 2 days.

87. The Chairman in his absolute discretion may dispense with the required notice where he considers that an emergency meeting of members or the Committee is desirable or necessary.

Disputes, Complaints, and Charges

88. All disputes, complaints, and charges shall be dealt with in accordance with the Rules of the Stock Exchange Association of New Zealand.

89. Notwithstanding the provisions of the preceding rule, the Committee shall have power to hear charges against any member for any breach of these rules or against any person whose conduct is considered detrimental to the well being of the Exchange.

Quorum

90. The quorum for general and special general meetings shall not be less than one-third of the total members of the Exchange for the time being entitled to vote. If there is not a quorum present at any meeting, either of the Exchange or the Committee, within 15 minutes of the time appointed, the same shall lapse. The lapse of a meeting shall in no way prejudice or affect the right to call another meeting for the same purpose.

The quorum for meetings of the committee shall be three.

The quorum for a trading meeting shall be prescribed in the by-laws governing the operation of such meetings.

Alteration of Rules

91. The Exchange shall have power to alter, amend, or repeal any of these rules.

92. Notice shall be given in writing, addressed to the Secretary, of any proposed amendment, or repeal of, or addition to the rules. A special general meeting shall be called to consider any proposed alteration, amendment, or repeal, and at least 7 days' notice of such meeting shall be given to the members by circular, sent to the last known business address of each member. The circular shall contain a copy of the proposed alteration, amendment, or repeal, but the accidental omission to give any such notice to any member shall not invalidate any proceedings taken or any resolution passed at such meeting. No amendment which introduces fresh matter shall be entertained at the meeting, and no proposed amendment, or repeal of, or addition to, the rules, if rejected, shall be entertained again for 12 months.

Any proposed alteration, amendment, or repeal of these rules must be passed by a three-quarters majority of those members present and voting.

Dissolution

93. The distribution of the property of the Exchange in the event of its winding up shall be determined by a special general meeting of the members of the Exchange.

Auditor's Report

We report that we have examined the balance sheet of the Hawke's Bay and Gisborne Savings Bank as at 31 March 1972, and the related revenue account for the year then ended, and have received all the information and explanations we have required.

In our opinion, the accompanying balance sheet and revenue account presents fairly the financial position of the bank at 31 March 1972, and the results of its operations for the year then ended, in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles applied on the basis consistent with those of the preceding year, except for stationery, as noted on the balance sheet.

Hastings, 28 April 1972.
