

Because of its frankness and sometimes sordid description of case histories the Tribunal considers that it should be restricted.

The Tribunal classifies this book as indecent in the hands of persons under the age of 18 years.

R. S. V. SIMPSON, Chairman.

No. 521

Decision of the Indecent Publications Tribunal

IN the matter of the Indecent Publications Act 1963, and in the matter of an application by Marketing Services (N.Z.) Ltd. for a decision in respect of the book Female Sex Perversion by Maurice Chideckel, published by Gold Star Publications (Australia) Ltd.

Mr Downey, solicitor, appeared on behalf of the applicant and made submissions.

DECISION OF THE TRIBUNAL

THIS book is another from the seemingly inexhaustible store of case histories which, under the guise of scientific investigation, form an excuse for exploiting prurience. It is poorly written and produced and lacks any evidence that an effort has been made to produce an objective and scholarly study that might be of value to those concerned with the understanding and rehabilitation of sexual deviants. Its honesty of purpose is suspect and its circulation could not be for the public good.

The Tribunal classifies this book as indecent.

No. 522

Decision of the Indecent Publications Tribunal

IN the matter of the Indecent Publications Act 1963, and in the matter of an application by Seven Seas Publishing Pty. Ltd. for a decision in respect of the book Another Piece of Candy by Jay Martin, published by Berkeley Publishing Corporation, New York.

Mr Downey, solicitor, appeared on behalf of the applicant and made submissions.

DECISION OF THE TRIBUNAL

Candy was a book which achieved some notoriety a few years ago. Another Piece of Candy, by a different author, appears to be a rather feeble attempt to cash in on that notoriety. The book has nothing to commend it. The story is thin and contrived and an obvious appeal to prurience.

The Tribunal classifies this book as indecent.
