Officers of Government of Ross Dependency Appointed

ARTHUR PORRITT, Governor-General

WHEREAS, by the Order in Council dated the 30th day of July 1923*, made under the British Settlements Act 1887 of the United Kingdom Parliament, the Governor-General and Commander-in-Chief of New Zealand for the time being (therein and hereinafter called the Governor) was appointed to be the Governor of the Ross Dependency, and all the powers and authorities which by the said order were given and granted to the Governor for the time being of the Dependency were thereby vested in him;

And whereas the Governor was thereby further authorised and empowered to make all such rules and regulations as might lawfully be made by Her Majesty's authority for the peace, order, and good government of the Dependency;

And whereas, by regulations made by the Governor on the 14th day of November 1923†, it was enacted that all persons appointed by the Governor for the time being of the Dependency should have such power and authority as might be granted to them in due course of law, and might be empowered to do such things as might be necessary or desirable to ensure that the laws in force in the Dependency are duly observed and complied with in every respect, and to do all things necessary or expedient for the peace, order, and good government of the Dependency, and to safeguard and preserve Her Majesty's rights and sovereignty over and in respect of the Dependency;

And whereas it is expedient that the persons hereinafter named be appointed officers of the Government of the Dependency:

Now, therefore, I, Sir Arthur Espie Porritt, Baronet, the Governor-General of New Zealand, and as such the Governor of the Ross Dependency, hereby appoint

Major Peter Gersham Frazer

as an officer of the Government of the Dependency; and I hereby confer on him all the powers and authorities which may be exercised in New Zealand by a Justice of the Peace, and also the powers and authorities which may be so exercised by a Coroner.

And I also appoint

Thomas Blakely, Esq.,

as an officer of the Government of the Dependency; and I hereby confer on him all the powers and authorities which may be exercised in New Zealand by a Justice of the Peace, and also the powers and authorities which may be so exercised by a Coroner.

KEITH HOLYOAKE, Minister of Foreign Affairs.

Decisions Under the Sales Tax Act 1932-33—Notice No. 62

Decisions in interpretation of the Sales Tax Act, notified in the New Zealand Gazette of 30 April 1970, No. 25, are amended as follows:

Minister's decision 1. E. (f) is cancelled and replaced by the following:

(f) The building and fitting of bodies or body panels to commercial trucks and delivery vans.

Notes—(1) The building and fitting of bodies or body panels to commercial trucks and delivery vans includes the building and fitting of parts of bodies to these vehicles but not the mere fitting of accessories.

(2) The term "body panels" does not include the following panels: bonnet, cowl, windscreen including the side panels and header panel, dashboard, valances and mudguards.

Dated at Wellington this 7th day of September 1972.

J. A. KEAN, Comptroller of Customs.

The Standards Act 1965—Standard Specifications Proposed for Revocation

Notice is hereby given that the New Zealand standard specifications listed in the Schedule hereto have been reviewed by a committee of the Standards Council and have been recommended for revocation, pursuant to the provisions of the Standards Act 1965.

Any person who may be affected by the proposal to revoke these standard specifications, and who wishes to object to their revocation, is invited to submit comments to the Standards Association of New Zealand, Private Bag, Wellington, not later than 29 September 1972.
