Indecent Publications Tribunal

I, Jack Alexander McLeod Kean, Comptroller of Customs, give notice that I have applied to the Indecent Publications Tribunal for a decision as to whether the book described below is indecent or not, or for a decision as to its classification.

Title: Nude Photography—A Panegyric Photo Essay of the Female Body.

Author: Andre de Dienes.

Publisher: Seven Seas Publishing Pty. Ltd., Box 1431, Wellington.

No. 560–563

Decision of the Indecent Publications Tribunal

In the matter of the Indecent Publications Act 1963, and in the matter of an application by the Comptroller of Customs for a decision in respect of the magazines Penthouse,* published by Penthouse Publications Ltd., London.

There was no appearance of the applicant. Mr Heron, solicitor, appeared on behalf of the publisher’s representative in New Zealand and made submissions.

Decision of the Tribunal

Four issues of the British magazine Penthouse, Vol. 7, Nos. 1 to 4, all published in 1972, have been submitted to us. The Tribunal has previously considered Penthouse on a number of occasions, the most recent being Vol. 6, No. 3, earlier this year. Decision No. 436 classified that issue as not indecent.

On this occasion we are able to deal with a sequence of four issues rather than a single issue in isolation. Of Vol. 6, No. 3, the Tribunal said:

“This issue contains serious and informative articles, some of which deal with subjects on sex, and there are also articles and illustrations in lighter vein. Taking the issue as a whole and in spite of some features which some may consider offensive or in poor taste, the Tribunal has decided to classify it as not indecent.”

As a general description of the four issues now before us, we consider this is still valid. The balance of material is not, however, weighted so heavily on the serious and non-sexual side as we thought earlier; and in contrast to the American Playboy, for example, some of the figure photographs tend to be more contrived and suggestive. On further consideration, therefore, the Tribunal has come to the conclusion that while Penthouse is not harmful to mature readers, an age restriction is warranted taking into account the current standards of the magazine itself measured against what is generally available on news stands in this country.

The Tribunal accordingly classifies these four issues of Penthouse (Vol. 7, Nos. 1 to 4) as indecent in the hands of persons under the age of 18 years.

*Vol. 7, Nos. 1, 2, 3, and 4

R. S. V. SIMPSON, Chairman.

No. 564–565

Decision of the Indecent Publications Tribunal

There was no appearance on behalf of the Comptroller of Customs. Mr Henderson, solicitor, appeared on behalf of the publisher’s representative in New Zealand of both books and made submissions.

Decision of the Tribunal

Making Love consists of a black-paged book full of photographs without captions or text. The poses are grotesque, the general effect ugly, the whole contrived, and verging on the obscene.

Paare is also a book of photographs of sexual activity; there are five sequences by different photographers whose qualities vary in type and prurience.

These sections vary in type and quality, but there is none of any merit; grotesque poses, close-ups of flabby contours, homosexual encounters in slow motion, kinky gimmicks, all cater to prurience.

The Tribunal classifies both these books as indecent.

R. S. V. SIMPSON, Chairman.

No. 566
Decision of the Indecent Publications Tribunal

In the matter of the Indecent Publications Act 1963, and in the matter of an application by the Comptroller of Customs for a decision in respect of the book Grushenka, anonymous, published by Holloway House Publishing Co., California.

There was no appearance of the applicant. Mr Downey, solicitor, appeared on behalf of the publisher's representative in New Zealand and made submissions.

DECISION OF THE TRIBUNAL

This story of a Russian serf girl inside Czarist Russia—a story of utter degeneracy, cruelty, and violence—a story which the Tribunal cannot accept as being authentic. The publisher claims the book as being the first complete and authentic American edition of the story privately printed in Paris in January 1933, but this claim does not ring true. The book, because of its emphasis on violence and indecency, clearly offends against the provisions of the Act.

The Tribunal classifies this book as indecent.

Decision of the Indecent Publications Tribunal

In the matter of the Indecent Publications Act 1963, and in the matter of an application by Marketing Ltd. for a decision in respect of the magazine International Guide for Adult Audiences, issued by Marketing Ltd., California.

Mr Downey, solicitor, appeared on behalf of the applicant and made submissions.

DECISION OF THE TRIBUNAL

This magazine contains many photographs of scenes from films, together with some account of those films and more general material on film personalities. It is described on the cover as an “International Guide for Adult Audiences”, but it cannot be accorded much significance as a guide to those interested in the art of the film. The illustrations depict a variety of sexual poses and incidents in a crude and garish way. The advertisements in the magazine reinforce our view that it treatment of sex is prurient and offensive.

The Tribunal classifies this issue of Cinema X as indecent.

Decision of the Indecent Publications Tribunal

In the matter of the Indecent Publications Act 1963, and in the matter of an application by the Comptroller of Customs for a decision in respect of the magazine Girl Illustrated, Vol. 5, No. 17, published by Top Sellers Ltd., London.

Mr Downey, solicitor, appeared on behalf of the applicant and made submissions.

No. 569
Decision of the Indecent Publications Tribunal

DECISION OF THE TRIBUNAL

This book comprises “two long-forbidden works” of French erotica from the late nineteenth century. One of the stories tells of the customs of young ladies of that age and is by way of a series of dialogues wherein their amorous adventures are recounted. The other is in the form of an exchange of letters between two girl friends who have a lesbian relationship.

The emphasis throughout is on sex and perversion and both stories are presented in a manner calculated to exploit prurient interest. The authorship is uncertain. In the opinion of the Tribunal the book is indecent within the meaning of the Act.

Wellington District

(Wellington Registry)

IN THE MATTER OF THE COMPANIES ACT 1955, AND IN THE MATTER OF INSULATION SERVICES LIMITED:

Notice is hereby given that a petition for an order that the majority shareholders in INSULATION SERVICES LIMITED (hereinafter called "the company") purchase from the petitioner, JOHN FREDERICK WOODBRIDGE, 2,000 shares in the capital of the company at a value to be fixed by the President of the New Zealand Society of Accountants or some person nominated by him such valuation to be made on the basis of the value of the shares as revealed by the balance sheet of the company as at 31 March 1971 adjusted (a) by reducing the maintenance reserve in the Tui Brewery Contract to $450 and; (b) by writing back into the company's trading accounts the amounts which had been paid to Insulation and Acoustics Supplies Limited over and above such amounts as would have been expensed had the company been employing its own labour and purchasing materials on its own account at trade rates. And on the assumption that the activity of the company and its net profit was maintained at the same level as revealed by the balance sheet as at 31 March 1971 so adjusted or for such other order as shall be just and for an order that the company or JOHN FREDERICK WOODBRIDGE pay the petitioner's costs.

And that the said petition is directed to be heard before the Court sitting at Wellington on the 15th day of November 1972, at 10.00 in the forenoon; and any creditor or contributory of the said company desirous to support or oppose the making of an order on the said petition may appear at the time of hearing in person or by his counsel for that purpose; and a copy of the petition will be furnished by the undersigned to any creditor or contributory of the said company requiring a copy on payment of the regulated charge for the same.

FRANCIS HANDY, Solicitor for the Petitioner.

The petitioner's address for service is at the offices of Messrs Watts and Patterson, Sixth Floor, U.D.C. House, 104 The Terrace, Wellington.

NOTE—Any person who intends to appear on the hearing of the said petition must serve on or send by post to the above-named notice in writing of his intention so to do. The notice must state the name, address, and description of the person, or, if a firm, address and description of the firm, and an address for service within 3 miles of the office of the Supreme Court at Wellington, and must be served or, if posted, must be sent by post in sufficient time to reach the above-named petitioner's address for service not later than 4 o'clock in the afternoon of the 14th day of November 1972.
