NORMAN KING, for Minister of Internal Affairs.

Appointment of Committee to Advise the Minister of Broadcasting

1. In the exercise of authority given to him by Cabinet and pursuant to the Government's policy of creating a new system of control and operation of broadcasting (including television) in New Zealand under publicly owned but competitive channels, the Minister of Broadcasting hereby appoints

Professor Kenneth Adam, C.B.E., of London;
Professor Robert McDonald Chapman, of Auckland; Dr John Lochiel Robson, C.B.E., of Wellington; and Dorothea Frances Turner, of Wellington

to be a Committee, of which Kenneth Adam shall be Chairman, to advise the Minister upon the said policy.

2. The Committee shall consider and report to the Minister upon the manner in which the said policy should be carried into effect, including the principles on which the publicly owned system should operate and the ways in which competition between channels can be encouraged, the co-ordination of the technical facilities of all channels, the administrative arrangements and other relevant matters, including any specific matters that may from time to time be referred to it by the Minister.

3. For the purposes aforesaid, the Committee is authorised and empowered to make any inquiry or investigation it may wish in whatever manner it chooses.

4. The Committee is directed to prepare a White Paper and to prepare or have prepared a draft of the legislation that will be necessary to give effect to the policy as presented in the White Paper, and further to prepare and set out a detailed scheme of the practical steps necessary to set up the machinery to carry out the policy and ensure a smooth transference of the functions and operations of the present authorities to those to be constituted under the new legislation.

5. The Committee is directed to report to the Minister not later than 31 July 1973, or such later date as the Minister may specify by notice in writing to the Chairman, and in the meantime not to publish or otherwise disclose the contents or purport of its report or any information obtained by it during its deliberations.

Dated at Wellington this 30th day of March 1973.

R. O. DOUGLAS, Minister of Broadcasting.
