Appointment of Committee of Inquiry Under Section 13 of the Trade and Industry Act 1956, to Inquire Into the Cook Islands - New Zealand Fresh Fruit Trade

1. Pursuant to section 13 of the Trade and Industry Act 1956 the Minister of Trade and Industry hereby appoints David Arthur Shand to be a committee to inquire into, investigate, and report on the fresh fruit trade between the Cook Islands and New Zealand.

2. The committee shall be called the Committee of Inquiry into the Cook Islands - New Zealand Fresh Fruit Trade.

3. In the inquiry into the fresh fruit trade between the Cook Islands and New Zealand the committee shall:

A. Investigate the purchasing, packaging, transportation, marketing, and distribution of Cook Islands fresh fruit in New Zealand.

B. Investigate the pricing and cost structure of Cook Islands fresh fruit from production through to consumption in New Zealand, including price relativity with supplies from other sources, particularly with a view to—

(a) Ascertaining whether the conditions of purchase and the prices paid to the growers are reasonable, and sufficient to induce appropriate development of the industry in the Cook Islands; and

(b) Ascertaining whether the margins of profit earned at various stages between production and consumption, and the price paid by the New Zealand consumer for Cook Islands fresh fruit are reasonable.

C. Recommend, where necessary, measures which could contribute to a better financial return to the Cook Islands fruit grower.

D. Examine the suitability of the arrangements which exist between Fruit Distributors Ltd. and the growers and Government of the Cook Islands, and recommend guidelines for arrangements which might prevail in the future for the importation, marketing, and distribution of Cook Islands fresh fruit in New Zealand.

4. In the inquiry into the Cook Islands - New Zealand fresh fruit trade the committee shall have regard to such matters as may from time to time be notified to it by the Minister of Trade and Industry.

5. The committee shall submit its report and recommendations to the Minister of Trade and Industry by 16 November 1973.

Dated at Wellington this 18th day of June 1973.

J. A. WALDING,
Acting Minister of Trade and Industry.
