Decision of the Indecent Publications Tribunal

There was no appearance of the applicant nor of the publisher’s representative in New Zealand. Accordingly no submissions were made.

Decision of the Tribunal

These are two comic books of the more extreme “horror” variety. They each contain over 70 pages of comic strips interspersed with a limited amount of reading matter and advertising material all related to the same theme. They represent the picture story counterpart of the more bizarre type of science fiction and horror film. There is nothing obscene in them. In terms of the Act we see no grounds for preventing adult readers from reading them, though the average person would probably very quickly lose any initial interest he may have in them.

It is their impact on young and immature readers with which we have been concerned. To the very young they would be meaningless, and on those in their developing years we do not think these particular publications would make any more injurious an impression than many of the fairy tales on which previous generations have been nurtured. The Tribunal classifies these two publications as not indecent.

R. S. V. SIMPSON, Chairman.

Decision of the Indecent Publications Tribunal

Mr Bathgate appeared on behalf of the applicant. Mr Taylor, the New Zealand distributor, appeared. No submissions were made.

Decision of the Tribunal

This paperback Russian novel, set in Moscow and its countryside, is described by its publishers as “the erotic sensation from the Soviet underground”—and as “the outlaw erotic masterpiece that explores the liberated variations of the Soviet experience—from sense expanding drugs to uninhibited sexual experimentation”.

The novel is not without some literary merit and the account of life in the Soviet Union would be of interest to the general reader. The Tribunal was inclined not to impose a restriction, but after careful consideration of the descriptions of sexual encounters felt obliged to impose one.

The Tribunal classifies this book as indecent in the hands of persons under the age of 18 years.

R. S. V. SIMPSON, Chairman.
Mr Bathgate appeared on behalf of the applicant and made submissions. Mr Heron, solicitor, appeared on behalf of the New Zealand distributors and made submissions.

DECISION OF THE TRIBUNAL

Mr Bathgate advised that complaints had been received regarding the contents of this particular issue. The department was aware that the Tribunal in earlier decisions had declared Health magazine to be indecent and pointed out that the magazine had a long history as a naturist publication catering for those interested in nudist clubs. He submitted that in No. 18 featured 18 frames of poses and studies that were not straight-forward and natural.

The Tribunal agrees that some of the photographs are contrived and perhaps the honesty of purpose of this magazine is becoming suspect. However, considering the issue as a whole, the Tribunal is not inclined to impose any restriction.

The Tribunal classifies this issue as not indecent.

R. S. V. SIMPSON, Chairman.

Price Order No. 2244 (Ecuadorian Bananas)

Pursuant to the Control of Prices Act 1947, I, Clifford Ernest Beard, pursuant to a delegation from the Secretary of Trade and Industry acting under a delegation from the Price Tribunal, hereby make the following price order:

1. This Order may be cited as Price Order No. 2244 and shall come into force on the 8th day of October 1973.

2. (1) Price Order No. 2184* is hereby revoked.

(2) The revocation of the said order shall not affect the liability of any person for any offence in relation thereto committed before the coming into force of this order.

3. References in this order to metropolitan areas are references to the metropolitan areas described in the Schedule hereto.

APPLICATION OF THIS ORDER

4. This order applies with respect to all Ecuadorian bananas sold by way of retail in New Zealand.

MAXIMUM RETAIL PRICES OF ECUADORIAN BANANAS

5. (1) The maximum price that may be charged or received by any retailer for any Ecuadorian bananas to which this order applies shall be:

(a) When sold by a retailer carrying on business in any of the metropolitan areas of Auckland, Wellington, Christchurch, or Dunedin, or in any of the Cities of Boroughs of Whangarei, Takapuna, Hamilton, Taunara, Rotorua, Gisborne, New Plymouth, Stratford, Hawera, Wanganui, Palmerston North, Napier, Hastings, Masterton, Blenheim, Nelson, Greymouth, Timaru, Waipori, Oamaru, Balclutha, Gore, or Invercargill:

- 17 cents per lb.

(b) When sold by a retailer carrying on business elsewhere:

- 1 lb, 18 cents;
- 2 lb, 35 cents;
- 3 lb, 53 cents;
- 4 lb, 70 cents;

- 6 lb, $1.05.

Fractions of a pound shall be calculated at the rate of 18 cents per lb. Quantities in excess of 6 lb shall be calculated at the rate of 17½ cents per lb.

(2) If in respect of any lot of bananas the price calculated in accordance with the foregoing provisions of this clause is not an exact number of cents, the maximum price of the lot shall be computed to the nearest cent.

PROVISIONS FOR SPECIAL PRICES

6. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the foregoing provisions of this order, and subject to such conditions, if any, as it thinks fit, the Tribunal, on application by any retailer, may authorise special prices in respect of any Ecuadorian bananas to which this order applies where special circumstances exist, or for any reason extraordinary charges (freight or otherwise) are incurred by the retailer. Any authority given by the Tribunal under this clause may apply with respect to a specified lot or consignment of bananas, or may relate generally to all Ecuadorian bananas to which this order applies sold by the retailer while the approval remains in force.

DUTY IMPOSED ON RETAILERS

7. Every retailer who offers or exposes for sale in any shop any Ecuadorian bananas to which this order applies shall keep in a prominent position, in such proximity to the bananas to

No. 729-730 Decision of the Indecent Publications Tribunal

In the matter of the Indecent Publications Act 1963, and in the matter of application by the Comptroller of Customs for decisions in respect of the following comic books:

- Dr Atomic, published by Bud Plant, California;
- Fantagor, published by Last Gasp, California;

Mr Bathgate appeared on behalf of the applicant and made submissions. There was no appearance of the publisher's representative in New Zealand.

DECISION OF THE TRIBUNAL

These two novels, the second the sequel to the first, are claimed to be a 'wildly erotic American saga of the love of two homosexuals and their relationships with the world around them.

Mr Bathgate, appearing on behalf of the Comptroller of Customs, referred the Tribunal to the homosexual content and the low moral tone of the novels, and submitted that they glamourised a practice which was a criminal offence in New Zealand. There was no appearance on behalf of the importers.

The Lord Won't Mind opens with a detailed account of the seduction of a supposedly inexperienced youth of 19 by a more sophisticated young man, 3 or 4 years his senior. They form an enduring liaison, and the temporary and intermittent liaisons which are held out for the education of the young reader are degrading and debasing.

The Tribunal classifies these two books as indecent.

R. S. V. SIMPSON, Chairman.

No. 731-741 Decision of the Indecent Publications Tribunal

In the matter of the Indecent Publications Act 1963, and in the matter of application by the Comptroller of Customs for decisions in respect of the following comic books:

- Dinosaur, published by Johny Chambers and Last Gasp, California;
- Funnies Inc., California;

Mr Bathgate appeared on behalf of the applicant and made submissions. Mr Taylor, the importer, appeared and made submissions.

These 11 comic books have at least one characteristic in common—they depict scenes of violence and horror in a way that is injurious to the public good. Four of them contain frames which are sexually obscene.

In classifying these books, the Tribunal is required to have regard to subsection (3) of section 11 of the Act. Picture story books have a particular appeal to children and if allowed free circulation these would be likely to fall into their hands. While most of the stories might be beyond the comprehension of the young child, the violence, cruelty, and horror come through so clearly and consistently that the effect of a sustained diet of them could be very harmful. The behavioural patterns which are held out for the education of the young reader are degrading and debasing.

The Tribunal classifies these books as indecent.

R. S. V. SIMPSON, Chairman.
which it relates as to be obviously in relation thereto, a ticket, placard, or label on which shall be stated in legible and prominent characters the following particulars:

(a) The retail price per pound of the bananas. Retailers to whom clause 5 (1) (b) of this order applies shall state at least the prices for 1 lb and 2 lb lots.

(b) The word "Ecuadorian".
