

O'Regan, and Georgina Te Heuheu were appointed to be a Commission to inquire into and report upon the administration of land beneficially owned by Maoris and vested in the Maori Trustee as reserved land under the Maori Reserve Land Act 1955, and upon the provisions of that Act:

And whereas by the said Order in Council you were required to submit your report not later than the 31st day of July 1974:

And whereas by Order in Council made on the 13th day of May 1974† the time within which you were so required to report was extended until the 30th day of October 1974:

And whereas it is expedient that the time for so reporting should be further extended as hereinafter provided:

Now therefore, I, Sir Edward Denis Blundell, the Governor-General of New Zealand, acting pursuant to the Commissions of Inquiry Act 1908, and by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council, hereby extend until the 12th day of December 1974 the time within which you, the said Bartholomew Sheehan, Rolland O'Regan, and Georgina Te Heuheu are so required to report, without prejudice to the continuation of the liberty conferred upon you by the first-mentioned Order in Council to report your proceedings and findings from time to time if you judge it expedient so to do, and hereby confirm the said Orders in Council and the Commission thereby constituted, save as modified by these presents.

Given in Executive Council under the hand of His Excellency the Governor-General this 7th day of October 1974.

P. G. MILLEN, Clerk of the Executive Council.
