

(2) In addition to the members specified in subclause (1) of this clause, the Committee may co-opt not more than two additional members.

3. (1) Subject to the provisions of this clause the appointed members of the Committee shall hold office for a period of 3 years, but may from time to time be reappointed.

(2) Any co-opted member shall hold office during the pleasure of the Committee for a period not exceeding 3 years, but may be reappointed.

(3) If any member dies or resigns his office by writing under his hand addressed to the Committee or the Chairman or the Secretary thereof, or is absent without leave from the meetings of the Committee for three consecutive meetings, or while holding office becomes for any reason ineligible to remain a member, the casual vacancy so created shall be filled as soon as practicable thereafter by the appointment of a member in the manner in which the vacating member was appointed, and the member appointed to fill the vacancy shall hold office for the residue of the term of office of the member whom he replaces.

(4) Unless he sooner vacates his office every appointed member of the Committee shall continue in office until his successor comes into office.

(5) The powers of the Committee shall not be affected by any vacancy in the membership thereof.

4. (1) A deputy member may be appointed in the same manner as an appointed member, to be the deputy of that member and act in the event of the absence of that member from any meeting of the Committee.

(2) While any person is acting pursuant to subclause (1) of this clause he shall be deemed to be a full member of the Committee. The fact that any person so acts shall be sufficient evidence of his authority to do so.

Dated at Wellington this 5th day of February 1974.
