Notice to Make Returns of Income Under the Land and Income Tax Act 1954

PURSUANT to the Land and Income Tax Act 1954, the Commissioner of Inland Revenue gives notice as follows:

1. Returns of income for the year ended 31 March 1974 (or other approved balance date) are required from:

- All companies, all partnerships, all persons in business (including farming) or in a profession, all persons in partnership, all trustees, executors, and administrators, notwithstanding that by reason of a loss being incurred for the year or carried forward from a previous year, no taxation is payable.
- Every person whose total income from employment exceeded $2,600.
- Every person who derived income from employment, the whole or any part of which was not taxed at source.
- Every person who derived interest and/or investment or building society dividends over $100 in the aggregate and whose total income (after deducting $100 of that interest and/or investment or building society dividends) exceeded $275.
- Every person who derived assessable income other than income from employment and whose total income exceeded $275 except that no return is required where the total income did not exceed $1,150 and consisted exclusively of dividends.
- Every person who paid provisional tax in respect of income for the year ended 31 March 1974.
- Every person who received withholding payments. Note, however, that a return is not required where a person does not come within any of the classes referred to in (a) to (f) above inclusive and the only withholding payments received were
  - Juror's or witness's fees, and/or
  - Not in excess of $24 in the aggregate and consisting of one or more of the following classes: Honoraria; fees for contributions to newspapers, journals, etc., or for radio or stage presentations; modelling or demonstrating goods or appliances; theatre, stage, concert, and radio performances; payments for election-day services.
- Every unincorporated body which derived assessable income.
- Every absentee who derived income from New Zealand.
- Trustees of superannuation funds.

2. Returns are required to be furnished by posting or delivering the same to the office of the Inland Revenue Department nearest to the place of residence of the taxpayer, or if the taxpayer's records are held in another office of the Department, then to the latter office.

3. Returns are due on:

- 7 June 1974 when income was derived from salary, wages, superannuation (including Universal Superannuation), pensions, taxable allowances, etc., and
  - No other income whatsoever was derived, or
  - The other income derived consisted exclusively of not more than $200 in total from dividends, net rents, interest (after $100 exemption).
- 7 August 1974 in all other cases or within 2 months of balance date, whichever is the later. No action for failure to furnish a return due on 7 August 1974 will be taken if it is furnished by 7 September 1974.

The return to be used is IR 5 (green print) in the case of paragraph 3(a) above, and the IR 3 (black print) in the case of 3(b) above.
