

In addition to return IR 3, farmers are to complete supplementary return IR 3F and persons in business or in a profession are to complete supplementary return IR 3B. (The supplementary returns are not required if a copy of the annual accounts is furnished with the return.) Companies are to use IR 4, estates and trusts IR 5A, and superannuation funds IR 44. Each form indicates the classes of taxpayers who are to use that form and, where applicable, the due dates for payment of provisional tax.

4. Return forms are available at district offices of the Inland Revenue Department and at post offices. Company returns are available at post offices in urban areas with a population of 5,000 or more and not having an Inland Revenue District Office.

5. Any person or company failing to furnish a return within the prescribed time is liable to a fine not exceeding $200 and not less than $4.

6. Any person who is not required under paragraph 1 to furnish a return and who has derived income from employment may elect to furnish a return using IR 5 if he requires an adjustment:

- (a) Because he paid life insurance premiums.
- (b) Because he considers that tax deductions made from his income were excessive.
- (c) Because he was entitled to exemptions which were not included in his tax code during the year.
- (d) Because he is entitled to deductions from income.

7. Any person furnishing a return of income who derived income taxed at time of payment should securely attach all tax deduction certificates (IR 12, IR 13, or IR 55) to the return form.

Dated at Wellington this 6th day of May 1974.

D. A. STEVENS, Commissioner of Inland Revenue.
