Notice Fixing Maximum Amounts Payable for Goodwill of Business of Milk Vendors Throughout New Zealand

NOTICE is hereby given that the New Zealand Milk Board has determined, pursuant to section 32 of the Milk Act 1967, that, as from and including the 1st day of July 1974, the maximum price which may be charged by any milk vendor (as that term is defined in section 2 of the Milk Act 1967) who owns a milk round (as that term is defined in section 2 of the Milk Act 1967) for goodwill on the sale of the business of such milk vendor shall not exceed in respect of the sale of such business a sum for goodwill calculated at the rate of $6 per litre of milk sold retail and $2 per litre of milk sold wholesale, based on the daily average quantity of milk sold on such round calculated over the preceding period of 12 months, or, if such round has not been in existence in an identifiable form for such a period, then calculated over such period as the round has been in an identifiable form.

No goodwill may be paid in respect of any other aspect of a milk vending business as hereinbefore defined.

The foregoing provisions of this determination shall be interpreted subject to the power of the Board from time to time to fix different maxima pursuant to the provisions of subsection (3) of section 32 of the Milk Act 1967.

For the purpose of the foregoing provisions of this determination—

- (a) Milk sold retail is that sold to commercial users or consumers in quantities of less than 12 litres in each lot delivered.
- (b) Milk sold wholesale is that sold to commercial users or consumers in quantities of 12 litres and over in each lot delivered or sold to occupiers of shop dairies in any quantity.
- (c) "Shop dairy" means any shop where milk is sold for consumption or use off the premises, and where the milk so sold is sold in the form in which it was received into the shop.
- (d) Milk does not include cream.

Notice is also hereby given that the New Zealand Milk Board has also determined, pursuant to section 32 of the Milk Act 1967, that, as from and including the 1st day of July 1974, the maximum price which may be charged by any milk vendor (as that term is defined in section 2 of the Milk Act 1967) who operates but does not own a milk round (as that term is defined in section 2 of the Milk Act 1967) for goodwill on the sale of the business of such vendor shall not exceed in respect of the sale of such business a sum of $1.

This determination replaces the previous determination of the New Zealand Milk Board, notice of which was published in the New Zealand Gazette of 15 November 1973, No. 105, at page 2365.

This determination shall apply throughout New Zealand.

Dated at Wellington this 14th day of June 1974.

D. J. HENDERSON,
General Manager, New Zealand Milk Board.

Committee of Inquiry into the Distribution of Motor Spirits and Ancillary Products, Pursuant to the Trade and Industry Act 1956

1. The Minister of Trade and Industry has requested the committee to inquire into, investigate, and report on the wholesale and retail distribution of motor spirits and ancillary products with the object of maximising the economic development of the distribution industry and the service to the consumer, and to make such recommendations thereon as it thinks fit.

2. For the purpose of taking evidence, the committee will be holding public hearings at Wellington and elsewhere. It is expected that public hearings will commence at Wellington about mid-August, and the venue and specific dates will be notified.

3. Any person who intends to tender evidence or make submissions should forward, in typewritten form, 50 copies thereof to be presented under oath at the public hearing. This evidence is to be lodged with the committee no later than 31 July 1974.

4. The purpose of the inquiry is set out in 1. above, and the committee has been directed to have regard to points (1) to (6):

- (1) The extent of competition in the wholesaling and retailing of motor spirits and ancillary products, and whether in the public interest steps should be taken to modify the present practices in the industry, and any legislation relating thereto.
- (2) The efficiency of the present wholesale and retail distribution of motor spirits and ancillary products, and any specific changes that the committee considers necessary to improve the efficiency of the industry.
- (3) The changes in patterns and terms of trade which have taken place in the wholesaling and retailing of motor spirits and ancillary products—with particular reference to consumer demand, density of retail outlets, hours of trading, credit facilities, and the development of highway service stations.
