Decisions of the Indecent Publications Tribunal

There were no appearances and no submissions were made.

Decision of the Tribunal

The Sky's the Limit: The cover describes this book as "the true and intimate diary of a swinging stewardess." It retells sexual exploits in a tone of indefatigable excitement. While there is no need to protect older readers from its trivial glamourising of sexual adventures, its treatment of sex could be injurious to impressionable children and some restriction is required.

The Tribunal classifies this book as indecent.

The Wholesome Hooker: This book is an attempt to cash in on the notoriety of earlier autobiographies of prostitutes, some of which the Tribunal has had to consider. There is nothing in this book to offset the debasing effect of its ill-constructed narrative of sexual episodes. Its gross explicitness increases its offensiveness and makes the indecent character of the book plain.

The Tribunal classifies this book as indecent.

No. 826

Decision of the Indecent Publications Tribunal

There were no appearances and no submissions were made.

Decision of the Tribunal

This book is described on the cover as a plain language guide to husband and wife or to serious lovers and by the author as a non-scientific but medically and psychologically accurate book of instructions and advice for the best enjoyment of sexual pleasure. The author is a graduate of the California College of Medicine and is in private practice. The book comprises text and photographs. The text in itself is unexceptionable and could very well be helpful to men and women. The photographs are detailed and explicit and in a number of instances go beyond what is relevant to the accompanying text and cast doubt on the honesty of purpose or the real intention of the book. In the result the dominant effect or character of the book is indecent.

The Tribunal classifies this book as indecent.

5 August 1974.

L. M. GREIG, Deputy Chairman.

No. 819-824

Decisions of the Indecent Publications Tribunal

In the matter of the Indecent Publications Act 1963, and in the matter of a reference by the Magistrate's Court in New Plymouth for decisions in respect of the books: Black Orchids and White Roses; Black Orchid; Books; Kinky Girls; Knockers and Knickers; Hot Knickers, published by Howard Publications Pty. Ltd., Sydney.

Mr Camp appeared on behalf of the distributor and made submissions.

Decision of the Tribunal

These 6 publications are photographic collections of partially-clad and nude women in a variety of poses, most of which are contrived and grossly obscene. The over-riding emphasis throughout on female undergarments would suggest that these publications are aimed mainly at those with fetishist tendencies. However, Black Orchids and Black Orchids and White Roses also contain photographs depicting lesbian activity.

The Tribunal classifies these 6 books as indecent.

L. M. GREIG, Deputy Chairman.

NOTES TO ACCOUNTS
1. Government stock—It is the bank's policy to amortise the discounts and premiums on Government stock securities over the term of the investment on a straight-line basis, and to show the value of the stock in the balance sheet at cost price plus amortised discount to date. In accordance with the policy the sum of $1,094 has been transferred to the profit and loss account for this financial year.
2. Change in Accounting Procedure—The Inland Revenue Department has advised that it is no longer necessary to take stationary stocks into account as at balance date. The bank has therefore decided to discontinue this practice, and stocks amounting to $9,332 appearing in the balance sheet as at 31 March 1973, have been written off to the profit and loss account together with the expenditure for the year ended 31 March 1974.

3. Capital Commitments—Mortgages approved but not advanced at 31 March 1974

R. G. TOULSON, President.

P. D. MUNN, General Manager.
