AMENDMENTS TO RULES

1. Disciplinary Rules—Rules 51-69v

It was resolved that Rules 51-69 inclusive be deleted and the following substituted:

Disciplinary Committee

51. (1) Establishment—A committee, to be known as the Disciplinary Committee of the Association, shall be appointed by the Council of the Association and shall consist of a barrister of not less than 7 years' practice who shall be chairman, and not less than two or more than seven members none of whom shall be a sitting chairman of an exchange, or a member of a local committee. The council may from time to time remove from office any member of the Disciplinary Committee or fill any vacancy in its membership or appoint any additional member with the consent of the chairman of an exchange. No member who has attained the age of 70 years shall be eligible for appointment and a member of the Disciplinary Committee attaining that age shall retire from the Disciplinary Committee at the conclusion of the next annual meeting of the association and shall not be eligible for reappointment.

52. (1) Functions—Without limiting or derogating from any other provisions of these Rules the Disciplinary Committee shall have power to inquire into any charge made against an exchange or against a member and referred to it by the council, the executive, or a local committee or the chairman thereof.

(2) Appeals—Every appeal by a member from the decision of a local committee shall be heard and determined by the Disciplinary Committee and shall be by way of a complete re-hearing of the charge unless the Disciplinary Committee shall otherwise decide.

(4) Penalties—If after inquiry into any charge, the Disciplinary Committee is of the opinion that the exchange or the member has been guilty of misconduct or of any breach of these rules or the rules of an exchange, or of any act, matter, or thing detrimental to the well-being or proper conduct of the association or exchanges generally it may, if it thinks fit, do one or more of the following things:

53. Serious Offences—Where a member is charged with having been convicted of a crime involving dishonesty as defined by section 2 of the Crimes Act 1961 or any statutory modification or re-enactment thereof, the charge shall not be heard by his local committee but shall be submitted by such local committee to the Disciplinary Committee for inquiry and action and for the purpose of this rule, proof of conviction may be given by a certificate containing the substance of the conviction purporting to be signed by the Registrar or other proper officer of any Court in which the offender was convicted.

54. Procedure—(1) The Disciplinary Committee shall give at least 10 days' notice in writing (or such lesser time as may be agreed upon by the parties concerned) to the exchange or member against whom a charge has been made, specifying the nature of such charge and the place, date, and time of the meeting of the Disciplinary Committee called to consider that matter.

(2) At such meeting, the exchange or member concerned shall be given a reasonable opportunity of being heard in defence and shall be entitled to be represented by Counsel if such exchange or member so desires.

(3) Except as otherwise provided in these rules, the Disciplinary Committee shall regulate its own procedures.

55. Evidence—(1) The Disciplinary Committee by notice in writing signed by its chairman or secretary may require any person to attend and give evidence before it at the hearing of a charge and to produce for inspection all books, documents, and papers that are in his custody or under his control relating to the subject matter of any such hearing.

Interim Suspension—(1) At any time after a charge has been made against any member the Disciplinary Committee may, in its own motion and without the necessity of giving any prior notice to the member, make an order suspending his membership until the charge has been heard and disposed of. The Disciplinary Committee may in its discretion decide to give public notice of the fact of interim suspension, so ordered.

(2) The member in respect of whom any interim suspension order is made under this rule may at any time apply to the Disciplinary Committee for the revocation of the order and the Disciplinary Committee may, subject to Rule 54 (2) grant, on such terms as it thinks fit, or refuse any such application.

57. Revocation of Suspension—(1) A member who has been suspended may apply to the Disciplinary Committee for revocation of his suspension and the Disciplinary Committee may grant such suspension in whole or in part, or refuse such application.

(2) The Disciplinary Committee may require as a condition of granting such application that the member pay, as well as his present year's subscription for such period, an amount not exceeding a year's subscription to the same exchange, together with the amount payable by a member to the Fidelity Guarantee Fund during the period of his suspension. The additional amount payable, except that part due to the Fidelity Guarantee Fund, shall be applied for the general purposes of the association.

58. Costs—After the hearing of any charge or application, the Disciplinary Committee may make such order as to costs (including the costs of and expenses of and incidental to any investigation) as it thinks fit.

If the Disciplinary Committee shall find such charge proved it may order:
(a) In the case of a non-member partner, that the partnership be dissolved; or

(3) Except at the direction of the Disciplinary Committee, a local committee shall not inquire into any charge already referred to the Disciplinary Committee.
(4) If after inquiring into any charge the local committee is of the opinion that the member has been guilty of misconduct or of any breach of these rules or the rules of his exchange, or of any act, matter, or thing detrimental to the well-being or proper conduct of the association or of exchanges generally, it may, if it thinks fit, do one or more of the following things:
(a) Expel such member from membership of his exchange provided however that if the local committee has by the rules of its exchange no final or absolute power of expulsion then the local committee may exercise in relation to that member all such powers relating to expulsion or recommendations as to expulsion as are conferred on it by its rules; or
