

general membership. If for any reason the positions of president or vice presidents become vacant, the council may elect one of its members to be president or vice president for the unexpired term.

(4) (a) The number of members of the council shall be sixteen (16). (b) At the annual general meeting such number of councillors as will, with any unfilled vacancy, create six vacancies on the council, shall retire. (c) In all cases the councillors to retire shall be from those who have been longest on the council without being re-elected and all such retiring councillors shall be eligible for re-election. As between two or more councillors who have been in office an equal length of time the member or members to retire shall in default of agreement between them be determined by lot. All vacancies created as hereinbefore provided shall be filled by ballot as provided in Rule 9 hereof.

(5) Where any member of the council ceases to have his permanent and principal or only place of residence within the district he shall cease to be a member of the council as from the commencement of the next annual general meeting.

(6) In the event of any member of the council dying, resigning, or vacating his office, the council may appoint to the vacancy any member of the society who is available and eligible. Every such appointee shall hold office for the balance of the term of his predecessor.

(7) A member of the council shall vacate his office if he has absented himself from three consecutive meetings of the council without leave of absence having been granted by the council.

(8) An elected member or a member appointed to fill a vacancy under subclause 6 of this rule shall vacate his office if he ceases to be a member of the society.

(9) Vacancies on the council caused by the retirement of members shall be filled from such members as will maintain the district representation as set out in subclause (2) of this rule.

Dated at Wellington this 28th day of February 1975.

HENRY MAY, Minister of Internal Affairs.
