The Rotorua City Waters Control Order 1975

DENIS BLUNDELL, Governor-General
ORDER IN COUNCIL

At the Government Buildings at Wellington this 28th day of April 1975

Present:

THE HON. W. W. FREER PRESIDING IN COUNCIL

PURSUANT to section 8A of the Harbours Act 1950, His Excellency the Governor-General acting by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council, hereby makes the following order.

ORDER
1. (a) This order may be cited as the Rotorua City Waters Control Order 1975.
(b) This order shall come into force on the date of its publication in the Gazette.

2. In this order:
   "The Act" means the Harbours Act 1950;
   "The Council" means the Rotorua City Council;
   "Minister" means the Minister of Transport and includes any officer, person, or authority acting by or under the direction or authority of the Minister.

3. There is hereby granted to the Council for a period of 21 years from the commencement of this order, the control of waters described in the First Schedule to this order, subject to the provisions of section 8A of the Act, and to the conditions specified in the Second Schedule to this order.

FIRST SCHEDULE
All the waters of Lake Rotorua extending 66 ft from the margin of the lake at its ordinary level and commencing at the easternmost corner of Kawaha 3G in Block XIII, Rotorua Survey District, and proceeding south-easterly generally along the margin of the lake to the west bank of the Puarenga Stream.

SECOND SCHEDULE
1. Her Majesty or the Governor-General and all officers in the Government service acting in the execution of their duty shall, at all times, have free ingress, passage, and egress into, through, over, and out of the waters described in the First Schedule to this order without payment.

2. Nothing herein contained shall authorise the Council to do, or cause to be done, anything repugnant to, or inconsistent with, any law relating to the Customs, or with any regulation of the Minister of Customs, or with any provision of the Harbours Act 1950 or its amendments, or any regulations made thereunder that are, or may hereafter be, in force.

3. No authority conferred by this Order in Council shall be exercised by the Council in respect of waters now or hereafter used for hydro-electric installations, except with the approval of the New Zealand Electricity Department.

4. Subject to the provisions of section 8A of the Act, the Council for and within the area of the waters described in the First Schedule hereto—
   (a) May by bylaw, do anything which a harbour board may do by bylaw under section 232 of the Act;
   (b) May appoint officers and define or limit their powers or duties;
   (c) Shall have all the powers, functions, duties, and authorities of a harbour board under the Act as if it were constituted a harbour board;
   (d) May expend money out of its general fund or account for the purpose of exercising and performing the control, powers, functions, duties, and authorities conferred by this Order in Council.

5. Bylaws made by the Council under the authority of this Order in Council shall not come into force until they have been approved by the Minister, by notice in the Gazette.

6. The said rights, powers, privileges, control, functions, duties, and authorities may be at any time resumed by the Governor-General, without payment of any compensation whatever, on giving to the Council 6 calendar months' notice in writing. Any such notice shall be sufficient if given by the Minister and delivered at or posted to the last known address of the Council in New Zealand.

P. G. MILLEN, Clerk of the Executive Council.

No. 128/75

1. That the special resolution passed at the extraordinary general meeting of the applicant company held on 27th February 1975 be confirmed.

2. That notice of registration of this order be published once in the New Zealand Gazette within 1 month from the date of registration thereof.

The special resolution referred to in the foregoing orders provided as follows:

"1. That the articles of association of the company be amended by the addition of the following article after article 136:

"136A (1) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in these articles distributions of capital from the share premium reserve account may be made to a member of the company in lieu of dividends (whether interim or final) in the following circumstances and subject to the following conditions:

(i) If the company notifies members that it intends until further notice to give members the option to receive distributions from share premium reserve account in lieu of dividends from profits then members who wish to receive dividends from profits of the same amount per share as the distributions from share premium reserve account must give prior written notice to the company that they elect to receive such dividends (such notice being referred to as a ‘dividend election notice’); provided that dividend election notice effective in respect of that payment but will be effective in respect of all subsequent payments;

(ii) Any member who fails to give a dividend election notice afresh or having given such notice gives the company less than 28 days prior written notice of the cancellation of the dividend election notice will receive distribution from share premium reserve account; provided that notices of cancellation which are received by the company less than 28 days before the date of payment of a dividend will not be effective in respect of that payment but will be effective in respect of all future payments;

(iii) The directors may:

(a) Pay to each of the members (but not others) who have not given a dividend election notice or, having given such notice, have given notice of cancellation as aforesaid dividends from share premium reserve account and such distributions shall be in lieu and in irrevocable satisfaction of the dividend;

(b) Pay to each of the members (but not others) who have given a dividend election notice (and have not given notice of cancellation thereof as aforesaid) dividends from share premium reserve account and such payments shall be in lieu and in irrevocable satisfaction of distributions from share premium reserve account;

(2) (a) A dividend election notice shall not attach to the shares in respect of which it is being given but shall be personal to the member concerned. Such dividend election notice shall, in respect of any shares transferred, be automatically revoked upon registration of transfer of the shares and shall in respect of any additional shares purchased or otherwise acquired be deemed automatically to apply.

(b) The company shall upon registration of the transfer of any shares to a new member or the allotment of new shares to a new member give such new member in writing of his rights under this article”.

2. (a) That subject to the confirmation of the Supreme Court and to any conditions imposed by the Supreme Court the sum of $2,755,536 standing to the credit of share premium reserve account in the books of the company as at 28th February 1975 may be distributed to the holders from time to time of the ordinary shares in the capital of the company.

(c) That the distribution of the amount mentioned above may be effected at such intervals and by a series of payments of such amounts (as the Directors may from time to time determine) to the holders from time to time of the ordinary shares in the capital of the company divided rateably (but subject always to the provisions of article 136a as inserted by the above resolution No. 2) in proportion to the amounts paid up on the ordinary shares held by them.

(c) That prior to paying such distribution the directors shall transfer from the revenue reserves of the company to a fund to be designated “Capital Replacement Fund” an amount equal to the amount to be distributed, such fund not to be available for the payment of dividend nor without the approval of the Supreme Court for distribution to shareholders but may be applied in paying up unissued shares of the company as fully paid bonus shares.
