THE CHARITABLE TRUSTS ACT 1957

In the Supreme Court of New Zealand
Auckland Registry

NOTICE is given that John Henry Harrison, of Auckland, retired welfare officer, the sole executor and trustee of the estate of Lucia Theresa Westphal, deceased, has applied to the above Court for approval of a scheme formulated under Part III of the above Act in respect of the said estate.

Particulars of the scheme are:

1. The trustee John Henry Harrison shall pay an equal share of the estate funds he holds (less expenses) to each of—

- (a) The North Shore Old Peoples Welfare Council Incorporated, for the general purposes of that society; and
- (b) The Chief Officer, for the time being in command of the Salvation Army in New Zealand, to be used as he or his successors in office think fit for the care and comfort of the aged and indigent in Auckland.

2. The North Shore Old Peoples Welfare Council Incorporated, and the Chief Officer, for the time being in command of the Salvation Army in New Zealand (who convenants for himself and his successors in office), undertake to expend those funds on the care and comfort of aged and indigent persons in Auckland, and the trustee shall not be concerned to see to the application of the estate funds once he has distributed them.

3. The expenses of the trustee in relation to the scheme are to be paid out of the estate funds before distribution.

The date proposed for the hearing of the application by the Court is Friday, 31 October 1975, and any person desiring to oppose the scheme must give written notice of his intention to do so to the Registrar of the Court, to the Attorney-General, and to the applicant not less than 7 clear days before that date.

John Henry Harrison, by his solicitors and duly authorised agents:

MASON CALDWELL & MASON.

The applicant's address for service is at the offices of Messrs. Mason Caldwell & Mason, Stewart Dawson Building, corner Queen and Wyndham Streets, Auckland 1.
