No. 864

Decision of the Indecent Publications Tribunal

IN the matter of the Indecent Publications Act 1963, and in the matter of an application by the Comptroller of Customs for a decision in respect of the publication 'R' Films, Vol. 1, publisher anonymous.

BEFORE THE INDECENT PUBLICATIONS TRIBUNAL

Messrs L. M. Greig (Chairman), D. M. Wylie, I. R. Cross, and Miss W. M. Rolleston.

Hearing: 19 July 1976.

Appearances: Mr P. E. Leloir for Comptroller of Customs. Written submissions from the importer were received and considered.

DECISION OF THE TRIBUNAL

This publication, described on the cover as Vol. 1, appears to be a monthly publication comprising stills from named movie films with an accompanying text. The films do not seem to have been released for public showing.

It is not a serious film review but is merely a series of photographs of poor quality with a text which has a predominantly prurient appeal and which has little relevance to the photographs.

The dominant effect is to cast doubt on the honesty of purpose of the anonymous publisher and there is no redeeming feature in the publication.

The Tribunal finds this publication to be indecent.

Dated this 13th day of September 1976.

No. 865

Decision of the Indecent Publications Tribunal

IN the matter of the Indecent Publications Act 1963, and in the matter of an application by Seven Seas Publishing Pty Ltd. for a decision in respect of the publication Liberating Masturbation (a meditation on self love), by Betty Dodson, published by Bodysex Designs, of New York.

BEFORE THE INDECENT PUBLICATIONS TRIBUNAL

Messrs L. M. Greig (Chairman), D. M. Wylie, I. R. Cross, Mrs L. Edmond, and Miss W. M. Rolleston.

Hearing: 15 March 1976.

Appearances: Mr P. J. Downey for Seven Seas Publishing Pty. Ltd.

DECISION OF THE TRIBUNAL

This book is a study of female masturbation practices. It is serious, indeed proselytising in tone, arguing that bodily self-knowledge leads women to increased sexual consciousness and greater understanding of themselves and the personal and social roles they are required to play.

It is addressed to feminists and is conceived as a significant addition to feminist literature. However one may regard its advice, there is no doubt of the sincerity of the author's intention. The Tribunal rules that Liberating Masturbation is not indecent.

No. 866

Decision of the Indecent Publications Tribunal

IN the matter of the Indecent Publications Act 1963, and in the matter of an application by Patrick Campbell, acting on behalf of Waverley Publishing Co. Ltd., for a decision in respect of the publication Unusual Sex Behaviour and Practices, by Dr Paul J. Gillette, published by Holloway House, of Los Angeles, U.S.A.

BEFORE THE INDECENT PUBLICATIONS TRIBUNAL

Messrs L. M. Greig (Chairman), D. M. Wylie, I. R. Cross, Mrs L. Edmond, and Miss W. M. Rolleston.

Hearing: 14 June 1976.

Appearances: No appearances, but written submissions from the applicant were received and considered.

DECISION OF THE TRIBUNAL

The Tribunal considered this book (then entitled Psychodynamics of Unconventional Sex Practises), in July 1971 and declared it to be indecent except in the hands of persons concerned, either professionally or as students, with sexual abnormalities (Decision 328). Although the title has changed, the edition now before the Tribunal is identical in content to that considered previously.

Having regard to the development within society over recent years of a greater awareness, understanding, and tolerance of more unusual forms of sexual behaviour, the Tribunal is of the opinion that a more relaxed classification is appropriate. However, in view of the fact that this book also deals with perversions with which few people will be familiar, we are, as we were previously, forced to take into account, the possible harmful effects that this book could have on younger, more impressionable readers.

The Tribunal classifies this book as indecent in the hands of persons under 18 years of age.

Dated this 13th day of September 1976.

LAURENCE M. GREIG, Chairman.
