Public notice is hereby given that the Commerce Commission has heard and determined an appeal by The Golden Bay Cement Company Limited against a decision of the Secretary of Trade and Industry relating to the price of cement manufactured and sold by the applicant.

After very careful review of all the submissions and evidence, and after having regard to the relevant subsections of section 98 of the Act, the Commission considered that the applicant failed to establish its case for an increase in return on adjusted shareholders' funds beyond the present authorised rate for this company of 21.5 percent.

However, up-dated financial information requested by the Commission and submitted during proceedings demonstrated that on the basis of 21.5 percent return on adjusted funds, the appellant was entitled to recover an immediate increase of $1.63 per tonne. This increase was supported by the Department of Trade and Industry.

In addition, and despite the fact that upon the evidence the Commission held that it could not grant the appeal, it considered that in terms of the Commission's wide powers under section 101 (3) of the Act the appellant should receive some relief on other grounds.

The Commission accordingly resolved: (a) to approve a price increase of $1.63 per tonne on the appellant's present return on adjusted shareholders' funds; (b) to further approve an additional price increase of $0.57 per tonne (both the above increases to be effective from 12 March 1976); (c) to discontinue the appeal in all other respects.

Copies of the full text of the Commission's decision are available at a cost of $2.50 per copy on application to the Executive Officer, P.O. Box 3781, Wellington.

I. N. CLARK, Executive Officer.

Decision of the Indecent Publications Tribunal

In the matter of the Indecent Publications Act 1963, and in the matter of an application by Patrick Michael McKee Wright on behalf of Penguin Books (New Zealand) Limited, of Auckland, in respect of the publication More Joy by Alex Comfort.

Date of Hearing: 16 October 1975.

No appearance of the applicant but written submissions were received and considered.

Decision of the Tribunal

More Joy, edited by Alex Comfort, is a companion to The Joy of Sex. Published by Penguin Books in 1975, it is a first Australian edition of the American publication of 1973. A large volume, hard covered and liberally illustrated, it is marketed at a price high enough to give it limited accessibility.

The editor's preface gives as the scope of More Joy "not more techniques or more elaborate ones (there are not many of these), but the two elements of development and of relation". This is expanded in the text into a full discussion of the implications for a relationship of physical experience; the range is wide—propriety, jealousy, dependence, role-playing, homosexuality, passivity are among many aspects covered.

The tone is similar to that used in The Joy of Sex, but the emphasis is less on elucidating methods of sexual experience and more on consideration of the psychological and social implications of sexual experience.

The Tribunal considers that the same restriction should apply to this companion volume, since it similarly is directed towards the understanding of physical aspects of long-term partnerships. It therefore classified More Joy as indecent in the hands of persons under sixteen.

LAURENCE M. GREIG, Chairman.

27 February 1976.

PLANTS IN NEW ZEALAND POISONOUS TO MAN
By Jose Stewart. Revised by H. E. Connor
1975
This revised edition of Mrs Stewart's Book, which was first published in 1964, is a handy colourful guide to the 50 or more plants in New Zealand known or suspected to be toxic to man. The plants are listed in alphabetical order by their common names and each entry has a colour photograph identifying the poisonous part of the plant. The botanical name, a general description of the plant, the toxin, and the symptoms of poisoning are also given. Plants that are toxic, if eaten, and touch irritants are dealt with in separate sections.
A general instruction on what to do if poisoning occurs or is suspected is featured prominently at the beginning of the book for ready access in emergency.
The material in the booklet is useful, succinct, and attractively presented. Although it has wide appeal generally, it is particularly valuable to parents of the young and curious.

PLUMBING IN NEW ZEALAND
The popularity of this textbook has made it necessary for a reprint to be run. Contained in this edition is a supplementary section with chapters on plastics, gas, and safety.
