Decision of the Tribunal

This is a paper-back edition of a book which was before the Tribunal in November 1967 (Decision No. 54, New Zealand Gazette, 23 November 1967). Its circulation was then restricted among professional psychiatrists.

It is now urged on us that this classification is out of date, having regard to changed classifications of other books, the distribution in other countries of a film version, favourable reviews by well known writers, and changes in the climate of public opinion.

As was said by the tribunal previously the book is in the tradition of de Sade but it is, in our view, worse and remains indecent.

The tribunal classifies this book as indecent unless its circulation is restricted to professional psychiatrists and clinical psychologists.

Decision of the Indecent Publications Tribunal

In the matter of the Indecent Publications Act 1963, and in the matter of applications by Patrick Campbell, acting on behalf of Waverley Publishing Co. Ltd. for decisions in respect of the publications listed below:

The Pearl, author anonymous, and My Secret Life, with introduction by G. Legman, both published by Grove Press, of New York.

Before the Indecent Publications Tribunal

Messrs L. M. Greig (Chairman), D. M. Wylie, I. R. Cross, Mrs L. Edmond, and Miss W. M. Rolleston.

Appearances: No appearances but written submissions were received from the applicant.

Decision of the Tribunal

These two publications of the Victorian era have been resubmitted to the tribunal in the belief that the restrictions on their circulation, imposed by previous decisions, are either difficult of enforcement or out of keeping with changing times and standards. The earlier decisions were given in 1968 and 1969, My Secret Life being the subject of Decision No. 119, given on 11 November 1968, while Decision No. 146 on The Pearl was delivered on 28 July 1969.

My Secret Life deals with the sexual adventures of a rich Victorian by the name of Walter: these are retold in great and unrelieved detail, with no attempt at any development of either story or character. The only thing which distinguishes it from others which the tribunal has unhesitatingly found indecent in recent years is that it was written in the nineteenth rather than the twentieth century.

The Pearl is a reprint of all the 18 issues published of an "underground" journal of 1879-1880, and it again dwells unendingly on sexual episodes, whether the form is prose or verse. There is no pretence at literary merit or social importance of any contemporary kind. If either of these works were written now, rather than a century or more ago, the tribunal would have no hesitation in finding them indecent.

We must, however, also consider their place in studies of the Victorian age, which might be literary or historical, sociological or psychological in character, and the need for them to be reasonably available for such purposes. We have examined again the slightly differing decisions made in 1968 and 1969 on these two books, and are of the opinion that the most satisfactory classification is that of 1968 in respect of My Secret Life. We, therefore, find that these two books are indecent except in the hands of persons over the age of 18 years whose professional or academic studies extend into the fields covered by them.

Dated this 28th day of July 1976.

LAURENCE M. GREIG, Chairman.

No. 863

Decision of the Indecent Publications Tribunal

In the matter of the Indecent Publications Act 1963, and in the matter of an application by Norming William Laking, Acting Comptroller of Customs, for a decision in respect of the publication The Kama Sutra of Vatsyayana, published by the Hogarth Guild, of Los Angeles, California.

BEFORE THE INDECENT PUBLICATIONS TRIBUNAL

Messrs L. M. Greig (Chairman), D. M. Wylie, I. R. Cross, Mrs L. Edmond, and Miss W. M. Rolleston.

Appearances: Mr P. E. Leloir for the Acting Comptroller of Customs; Mr P. J. Downey for Seven Seas Publishing Pty. Ltd.

DECISION OF THE TRIBUNAL

This edition of the Kama Sutra of Vatsyayana, published by the Hogarth Guild, Los Angeles, California (for "private circulation to members of the Hogarth Guild Book Club only") created some difficulty for the tribunal. The text, a classic exposition of the techniques of achieving sexual pleasure, is also concerned with the morality and ethics of the conduct it describes. It is the work of a scholar who is a master of concise writing. However, the photographs, which form such a significant part of this edition of the work, fail to match its literary standard and range of concern. Some appear to be designed to assist the commercial exploitation of the text by means which are indecent. These lapses fail to match its literary standard and range of concern.

Dated this 23rd day of July 1976.

LAURENCE M. GREIG, Chairman.

THE COMPANIES ACT 1955
MEETING OF CREDITORS
A meeting of the creditors of Scott Promotions Ltd., in liquidation (which was wound up by the Supreme Court on 28 May 1976) will be held at the boardroom, Canterbury Manufacturers' Association, 263 Cambridge Terrace, Christchurch, on 17 August 1976, at 11 a.m.
Note: The above company was involved as promoter of the "Cashi Bonanza" and other competitions in conjunction with various sporting and other organisations. The company has disclaimed liability for any refunds to the holders of the many thousands of tickets in competitions which were not completed. In any event, indications are that no funds will be available for payment of a dividend to ordinary creditors.
Any person claiming to be a creditor of the company may, however, obtain a proof of debt form on application to the nearest official assignee's office and forward the same to me together with supporting evidence.

The most important collections of Maori books and pamphlets are mentioned in this bibliography. A short review has been made of the Maori literature dealt with and an endeavour has been made to trace the history of the various mission and other private presses concerned. Any work, however small, printed wholly in Maori, or in Maori with a translation has been included; so also has any work dealing wholly with the Maori language—such as a dictionary.

Note—Subscriptions may commence at any time during the year, but must expire on our expiry date. Charges are apportioned accordingly. Subscription rates reviewed at the end of each subscription year. Subscriptions apply only to issues printed during the subscription period.

THE AUSTRALIAN - NEW ZEALAND AGREEMENT 1944, VOL. 1
Edited by Robin Kay
297 p. $7.50
This volume of documents on the Australian - New Zealand Agreement of 1944—also known as the Canberra Pact—is the first of a planned series on New Zealand external relations. Its primary purpose is to make available to scholars the earliest possible stage documents on the development of this country's foreign policy. (Department of Internal Affairs.)

BETWEEN GOVERNMENTS AND BANKS
By Dr Hawke
244 p. $6
The Reserve Bank of New Zealand was established in 1933-34 but today's institution bears little resemblance to the one that was originally constructed by the 1933 legislation. The author, with a combination of historical and economic skill, covers the story and makes an assessment of the Bank's performance to date. A valuable contribution to New Zealand's historical record.

CHOOSING A JOB

12 p.

Although this booklet is primarily for young people leaving school, the advice it gives will be helpful to many others who are considering a new job. It discusses how to choose the right job; how to find out what the work is about; how to prepare for an interview, and what to do during the interview. (State Services Commission.)

THE COURTS AND CRIMINAL PUNISHMENTS

Three lectures by Sir John Barry

91 p.

Sir John Barry was Judge of the Supreme Court of Victoria from 1947 to 1969. The lectures published in this book were prepared by him for delivery in New Zealand but illness prevented him from making the visit and the lectures have been published in the form in which he intended to deliver them.

CRIME IN NEW ZEALAND

A SURVEY OF NEW ZEALAND CRIMINAL BEHAVIOUR

$6.50

In this study of crime, the object is to provide not only statistical information but to describe the administrative procedures and law. This book is not just a colourless official document. The authors compiled the text with the intention of making it interesting to all readers. A well balanced publication aimed at giving the reader a clear insight into the law in New Zealand. (Department of Justice.)

CROWN COLONY GOVERNMENT IN NEW ZEALAND

By A. H. McLintock

$2.40

This book, which deals with a little known and understood period of New Zealand history, comprises three distinct sections, first, the Coming of Sovereignty; secondly, Men and Government; and finally, the Evolution of a Constitution. While this book will be of special interest to New Zealanders it will command a wider audience since it contains much that is new with respect to British colonial policy in the first half of the nineteenth century.

THE CURRIE REPORT: TEN YEARS LATER

By John L. Ewing

EDUCATION MAGAZINE No. 6

49 p.

$0.10

This is a follow up to the Report of the Commission on Education in New Zealand after 10 years have lapsed, in answer to many questions still unanswered. It deals with trends, areas of concern, influences, and recommendations. (Department of Education.)

DIRECTIONS FOR EDUCATIONAL DEVELOPMENT

A REPORT PREPARED BY THE ADVISORY COUNCIL ON EDUCATIONAL PLANNING

141 p. 1975.

$2.25

This report marks the culmination of the activities of the Educational Development Conference. The Advisory Council has recommended the directions it considers New Zealand education should go in the next 5 or 10 years.

Five principal areas are identified as requiring attention.

Education is seen as a lifelong activity, and emphasis is therefore placed on the "foundations"—early childhood education, the school curriculum and special provisions for special needs, and parent education.

Special attention is given also to the relationship between the school and the community, the need for close mutual support and co-operation, including understanding and respect for minority cultures.

A key to the quality of education is the people involved in it. Teacher education, the availability of advisory and ancillary staff, as well as resources for materials and research, have a chapter devoted to them.

Since education is seen as a lifelong activity, this is considered at some length. Facets such as accessibility, transfer of credits, and the role of existing institutions are discussed, together with ways in which continuing education could be provided for the whole community.

In discussing the administration and organisation of education the principle followed is the maximum devolution of authority and responsibility to the agencies and the community, at for instance, school committee and district level.

A DICTIONARY OF THE MAORI LANGUAGE

By H. W. Williams

The seventh revised edition, augmented by the advisory committee on the teaching of the Maori language.

DOMINION MUSEUM MONOGRAPHS

Elsdon Best (1856–1931), who was a member of the staff of the Dominion Museum from 1911 to 1931, made a notable contribution to the study of Maori ethnology. After a lifetime of experience, including many years in close contact with the Maoris of the Urewera, he spent the last 20 years of his life writing particularly of the social customs and beliefs of the Maori people. There is still a demand for the many monographs written by Elsdon Best and the following titles have been reprinted without alteration to the original text (National Museum):

No. 2. Spiritual and Mental Concept of the Maori. 37 p.

No. 3. The Astronomical Knowledge of the Maori. 80 p.

No. 4. The Maori Division of Time. 51 p.

No. 5. Polynesian Voyagers. 54 p.

No. 6. The Maori School of Learning. 31 p.

ECONOMICS OF THE NEW ZEALAND MAORI

By Raymond Firth

The Maoris are honourably known far outside the confines of their New Zealand home. Acknowledged to be one of the finest of the native races within the British Commonwealth they have long been celebrated for their splendid physical appearance, their proud physical appearance, their proud and ascetic spirit, their fluent oratory, and above all for their prowess in war. This book contains an account of the social and economic organisation of the Maori people before the organisation was transformed by contact with Western civilisation. It is a major scientific contribution to economic anthropology and has now become a standard work.

EDUCATIONAL PLANNING IN NEW ZEALAND

This book contains the papers presented at a seminar on educational planning held at Victoria University of Wellington from 14 to 19 May 1972. This seminar was intended to lay the foundation for later seminars which would probe education problems in depth. Three main themes were chosen for the seminar, "Educational planning in its relation to national economic planning", "Planning the structure and content of education", and "Information and techniques for educational planning". Edited by W. L. Renwick and L. J. Ingham, this book will interest a wide range of people.
THE EFFECTS OF RACE AND SOCIO-ECONOMIC STATUS ON JUVENILE OFFENDING STATISTICS
31 p. 1975. $1
This report examines the extent to which the difference in European and non-European offending rates reflects variations in the socio-economic distributions of the two populations. The results indicate that, while a substantial proportion of the difference in offending rates for the two racial groups can be attributed to socio-economic factors, the larger part of this difference cannot be accounted for in this way. Both the theoretical and the practical implications of this finding are discussed. (Research Unit, Joint Committee on Young Offenders.)

EFFECTIVE DISCUSSION
52 p.
Although originally written for staff training purposes in the Public Service, this booklet became popular with outside organisations as a guide to the conduct of meetings. It describes planning and organising both large and small group discussions and contains many useful hints which will help the discussion leader to get the best out of his group, whether he is an old hand or a novice at leading discussion. Also included are lists of books for further reading and recommended films. (State Services Commission.)

ENERGY AND THE ENVIRONMENT
Edited by D. M. Adcock
156 p. 1974. $4.50
This book is intended as a valuable summary of energy technology and its associated consequences of unrestrained growth in electricity and total energy consumption. Power construction schemes are likely to have considerable environmental impact at a time of increasing awareness of the need for environmental conservation. Series No. 19. (N.Z. Institute of Public Administration.)

ENGINEERING PUBLICATIONS
Now available through Government bookshops are the following engineering publications that will be of interest to all civil engineers and those associated with engineering. These publications, prepared by the Civil Engineering Division of the Ministry of Works and Development, supply such information as: stress, load bearing, design, and examples of the various equations.
