The Post Office Savings Bank Housing Bonds Notice 1976

THE Postmaster-General hereby gives the following notice.

NOTICE

1. Title—This notice may be cited as the Post Office Savings Bank Housing Bonds Notice 1976.

2. Interpretation—For the purposes of this notice unless the context otherwise requires—

"Insurance Companies" has the same meaning as in the Life Insurance Act 1908, and includes any department, division, or office of any such company.

"Superannuation Funds" means any superannuation fund or scheme that is a financial institution for the purposes of the Reserve Bank of New Zealand Act 1964.

3. Introduction—Housing Bonds are issued by the Post Office Savings Bank, under section 129E of the Post Office Act 1959, being an issue at par of registered, transferable, redeemable securities.

4. Term—The term of investment is five years from the first day of the month following the date of initial lodgment.

5. Interest—(1) The rate of interest is 9 percent per annum calculated on a daily basis from the date of lodgment up to the first day of the following month and then half-yearly on the face value of the bond.

(2) Interest is payable six-monthly to the registered holder.

6. Redemption—(1) At maturity—bonds will be repaid at face value to the registered holder.

(2) Prior to maturity—a redemption penalty of 2 percent per annum of the face value of the bond for each complete month from the date of redemption to maturity applies, except that the minimum yield to redemption is 3 percent per annum. The redemption facility is qualified as follows:

(i) 30 days' notice prior to redemption is required.

(ii) Where the original holder dies, redemption at par at 30 days' notice will be available.

(iii) A redemption option is available only to original holders subject to the $25,000 limit per annum.

7. Subscription—(1) Minimum investments of $200 are required and additional amounts to this may be made in multiples of $10 to a maximum of $25,000 per holder per annum (per annum calculated from the date of initial lodgment) for institutions and such other excluding insurance companies and superannuation funds (and such other institutions as may be specified from time to time by notice in the Gazette) who may invest in housing bonds without limit.

(2) Housing Bonds may be purchased by:

(i) Individual persons either jointly or severally in their own name(s) having attained seven years of age and being under no legal disability, other than that of being an infant, or in the name of any other person who has attained seven years of age and who is not under any legal disability, except that of infancy.

(ii) A person having the custody and control of a child who has not attained seven years of age, in the name of and on behalf of that child.

(iii) A trustee or trustees appointed under any instrument creating a trust in favour of any individual person or persons or institution.

(iv) A company or partnership, body corporate, solicitor, trustee company (as defined in the Trustee Companies Act 1967), insurance company or any other entity.

(3) Applications for the purchase of Housing Bonds will be accepted at any office of the Post Office Savings Bank.

8. Transferability—Housing Bonds may be transferred from one holder to another by memorandum of transfer lodged at the office of the Registrar. The right to redemption available to an original holder subject to the $25,000 per annum limit will lapse upon transfer of the bond. Holders not subject to the $25,000 per annum limit will be issued with a bond that is not redeemable but is transferable. Transfers may be effected on the basis of a $200 minimum and in multiples of $10 thereafter.

9. Commission—Commission may be paid by the Post Office Savings Bank on funds made available from sources in the market.

10. Trustee Investment—A Post Office Savings Bank Housing Bond is a New Zealand Government security for the purposes of section 4 of the Trustee Act 1956.

11. Registration—Each investment will be registered by the Post Office Savings Bank in the name of the person or entity to whom it is issued. The register will be held in Savings Bank Division, Post Office Headquarters, Wellington.

Dated at Wellington this 1st day of September 1976.

HUGH TEMPLETON, Postmaster-General.

The Traffic (Hawera County) Notice No. 1, 1976
