

not in partnership with any person or persons engaged in any business other than full time share broking.

Class 2 shall comprise country members who in the opinion of the Committee are not currently solely engaged in the business of share broking including those members who though themselves solely engaged in the business of share broking are in partnership with any person or persons engaging in any business than share broking.

Class 1 country members shall not be required to be re-elected annually.

Class 2 country members must apply for re-election not later than 1 November in each year or such other annual date as the Exchange may fix by resolution and be re-elected annually. Application shall be in writing and shall include the signatures of two members as proposer and seconder. Any application of a country member for re-election which does not reach the Secretary by 1 November or other fixed annual date in any year shall not be submitted to members unless the Committee directs otherwise but the country member shall be entitled to make a fresh application for admission to membership in all respects as if it were an original application including the payment of an entrance fee. Re-election of class 2 country members shall take place at the annual general meeting or at such special general meeting as the Committee may fix and any class 2 country member who has failed to secure re-election by the conclusion of such general meeting shall cease to be a country member from the conclusion of the meeting."

Rule 112

The following new rule is inserted immediately after Rule 111.

"POSTAL BALLOTS

112. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in these rules contained the Committee may resolve that the voting of any business which would otherwise be transacted at any general meeting of the Exchange may be conducted by postal ballot among the members. The Committee shall thereupon cause voting papers setting out the resolution or resolutions to be proposed and containing provision for the members to vote for or against each such resolution to be sent to members by the Secretary. No voting paper shall be valid unless signed by the member completing it. The voting papers shall be deemed to have been received by members on the day after the date of sending and shall specify a period thereafter by which the duly completed voting papers are to be received by the Secretary being not less than the period of notice required under these rules to be given to members of the intention to propose the resolution at a general meeting of the Exchange. Each member who returns a duly completed voting paper to the Secretary within the period so specified shall be deemed for the purposes of these rules to have been present and to have voted at a duly convened general meeting of members and the provisions and restrictions as to voting set out in these Rules shall apply to every Postal Ballot accordingly.

In the event that insufficient completed voting papers shall be returned to constitute a quorum under these rules or in the further event that 15% of the members require in writing within the period so specified that a meeting be held then the Secretary shall on the requisite notice call a meeting."
