Decision No. 2/77

Decision of the Broadcasting Tribunal

In the matter of the Broadcasting Act 1976, and in the matter of a complaint, pursuant to section 67 (1) (b) of the Act, between Clifford Reginald Turner and Arthur William Rushton Mead, complainants, and Broadcasting Corporation of New Zealand, respondent:

Before the Broadcasting Tribunal

Members:
H. S. Flane (Chairman), Lionel R. Stcats, and Janet C. Somerville.
Co-opted members: S. H. Gardiner, and A. M. Perry.

Hearing at Wellington on the 26th day of September 1977.

Decision

Mr. C.R. Turner and Reverend A. W. R. Mead separately complained to the Broadcasting Corporation of New Zealand about the television commercial advertising the Lion Breweries "Man of the Test" promotion. They were dissatisfied with the corporation's rejection of their complaints.

It is not necessary to traverse in detail the complaints made to the Tribunal by each of the complainants except to say that one of them was unaware of the broadcasting act made by the corporation and relied upon breaches of the Broadcasting Act.

The Tribunal does not consider that the advertisements were in breach of the statutory provision for the observance of good taste and decency (S. 24 (1) (c) Broadcasting Act 1976) or relating to the maintenance of law and order (S. 24 (1) (f)). However, it is complained that the advertisement is in breach of the advertisement rules. The corporation itself restricts advertisements for alcoholic beverages by those rules which provide that:

"No station shall broadcast any advertisement which directly or by implication:

(q) Is designed to promote the general consumption of alcoholic beverages.

Advertisements for alcohol may be made only in accordance with the following conditions:
13 October

THE NEW ZEALAND GAZETTE

2703

(1) Advertisements may be made only on behalf of a wholesale or retail point of sale, such as a vineyard, a wholesale store, a wine shop, or licensed premises.

(2) Advertisements must not use brand names as such. A brand name is one which is the name of a particular wine, spirit, or beer, etc., such as “Blue Nun”, “Gordon’s Gin”, “Leopard Beer”; or one which refers to a range of wines, spirits, beers, etc., from a particular vintner, manufacturer or distributor, such as “Corbans” wines, “Lion” beers, “Gilbey’s” spirits.

Note: There are some sale outlets which incorporate brand names in their title, e.g., “Corbans Wine Shop”, “Montana WeinKelly”, etc. These titles may be used in advertisements only in such a way that they refer clearly and consistently to the point of sale, and not to the brand of wine, etc.

(3) No descriptions of the qualities of any wine, beer or spirit, etc., are allowed in any advertisement.

(4) Advertisements must be confined to:

(a) Details of the points of sale and the service, e.g., location, hours of sale, details of parking, delivery, and type of sale (wholesale or retail); and

(b) Description of the general range of merchandise, e.g., “A full stock of New Zealand and overseas wines, New Zealand and imported spirits and cordials, and a wide range of beer in cans, bottles, and flagons.”

The commercial complained of was, in fact, a series of commercials containing the same basic material updated as to “Lion Breweries’ Man of the Test”. As the tour of the British Isles team progressed through New Zealand, Mr Waka Nathan, a former All Black, urged entry in the competition followed by a description of the prizes to be won.

An attempt is made to bring the advertisement within the associated advertising was to promote the sale of Lion products. The Tribunal concludes that the commercial as produced does not have been accepted and broadcast.

DIRECTIONS FOR EDUCATIONAL DEVELOPMENT
A REPORT PREPARED BY THE ADVISORY COUNCIL ON EDUCATIONAL PLANNING
141 p. 1975. $2.50
This report marks the culmination of the activities of the Educational Development Conference. The Advisory Council has recommended the directions it considers New Zealand education should go in the next 5 or 10 years. Five principal areas are identified as requiring attention.

Education is seen as a lifelong activity, and emphasis is therefore placed on the "foundations"—early childhood education, the school curriculum and special provisions for special needs, and parent education. Special attention is given also to the relationship between the school and the community, the need for close mutual support and co-operation, including understanding and respect for minority cultures.

A key to the quality of education is the people involved in it. Teacher education, the availability of advisory and ancillary staff, as well as resources for materials and research, have a chapter devoted to them.

Since education is seen as a lifelong activity, this is considered at some length. Facets such as accessibility, transfer of credits, and the role of existing institutions are discussed, together with ways in which continuing education could be provided for the whole community.

In discussing the administration and organisation of education the principle followed is that the maximum devolution of authority and responsibility to the agencies and the community, at for instance, school committee and district level.

ECONOMICS OF THE NEW ZEALAND MAORI
By Raymond Firth
519 p. 1972. $8.75
The Maori people are honourably known far outside the confines of their New Zealand home. Acknowledged to be one of the finest of the native races within the British Commonwealth they have long been celebrated for their splendid physical appearance, their proud bearing, their aristocratic spirit, their fluent oratory, and above all for their prowess in war. This book contains an account of the social and economic organisation of the Maori people before the organisation was transformed by contact with Western civilisation. It is a major scientific contribution to economic anthropology and has now become a standard work.

EDUCATIONAL PLANNING IN NEW ZEALAND
432 p. 1974. $7.50
This book contains the papers presented at a seminar on educational planning held at Victoria University of Wellington from 14 to 19 May 1972. This seminar was intended to lay the foundation for later seminars which would probe education problems in depth. Three main themes were chosen for the seminar, "Educational planning in its relation to national economic planning", "Planning the structure and content of education", and "Teaching techniques in educational planning". Edited by W. L. Reavick and L. J. Ingham, this book will interest a wide range of people.

EFFECTIVE DISCUSSION
52 p.
Although originally written for staff training purposes in the Public Service, this booklet became popular with outside organisations as a guide to the conduct of meetings. It describes planning and organising both large and small group discussions and contains many useful hints which will help the discussion leader to get the best out of his group, whether he is an old hand or a novice at leading discussion. Also included are lists of books for further reading and recommended films. (State Services Commission.)

THE EFFECTS OF RACE AND SOCIO-ECONOMIC STATUS ON JUVENILE OFFENDING STATISTICS
This report examines the extent to which the difference in European and non-European offending rates reflects variations in the socio-economic distributions of the two populations. The results indicate that, while a substantial proportion of the difference in offending rates for the two racial groups can be attributed to socio-economic factors, the larger part of this difference cannot be accounted for in this way. Both the theoretical and the practical implications of this finding are discussed. (Research Unit, Joint Committee on Young Offenders.)
