Commerce Commission

PUBLIC inquiry in terms of section 104 of the Commerce Act 1975 (as amended by section 34 of the Commerce Amendment Act 1976) relating to certain matters arising from exchange losses or gains on the repayment of overseas loans by New Zealand persons or corporations.

1. In terms of section 104 of the Commerce Act 1975 (as amended by section 34 of the Commerce Amendment Act 1976) the Minister of Trade and Industry has, in a letter dated 17 March 1977, requested the Commerce Commission to conduct a public inquiry into the following matters:

- The circumstances giving rise to exchange losses or gains on the repayment of overseas loans by New Zealand persons or corporations.
- Whether in relation to price control measures such gains or losses ought to be admitted in the determination of the prices of goods or services.
- The circumstances in which such gains or losses ought to be taken into account, whether on the basis of rules of general application or in particular cases or classes of cases.
- The methods by which such gains or losses could be reflected or admitted in the prices of goods or services.

In addition to the considerations prescribed in section 98 of the Commerce Act 1975 (as amended by section 29 of the Commerce Amendment Act 1976 and without limiting section 2A of that Act) as it considers appropriate, the Minister asks that the Commission take the following matters into account:

- Any law, government requirement, or policy affecting the borrowing of money outside New Zealand by persons or corporations and the treatment of any losses or gains arising from that borrowing.
- The treatment of exchange gains or losses in current accounting practice in New Zealand.
- The effect that the admission of exchange gains or losses would have on economic stability including domestic price levels.

2. Parties intending to make submissions to the Commission in connection with this inquiry are invited to notify the executive officer of the Commission of that intention no later than Friday, 29 April 1977. Where possible, such parties should also indicate briefly the general or specific nature of their interest.

3. In any case where two or more separate parties wish to be heard and or represented jointly in the inquiry they should so inform the Commission so that the Commission can consider granting leave for this to be done in terms of section 14 (4) of the Act.

4. Written submissions will be required by the Commission to be filed with it by 4 p.m., 24 May 1977.

5. The Commission has set as a tentative date for commencing the public hearing, Tuesday, 14 June 1977, at 10 a.m.

6. All parties notifying the Commission in accordance with paragraph 2 of this notice will be informed later as to the procedure to be followed.
