Tongariro National Park Board Motor Camp Bylaw 1976

PURSUANT to the power vested in it by the National Parks Act 1952, the Tongariro National Park Board makes the following bylaw.

BYLAW

1. This bylaw may be cited as the Tongariro National Park Motor Camp Bylaw 1976.

2. In this bylaw, unless inconsistent with the context:

“Board” means the Tongariro National Park Board;

“Motor Camp” means the area in the Whakapapa Village known as the Whakapapa Motor Camp;

“Permit” means a permit to occupy a site;

“Permit Holder” includes any person to whom a permit has been issued notwithstanding that such permit has expired or otherwise been determined;

“Permit Officer” means a permit officer appointed under this bylaw;

“Site” means any land within the camping area numbered as a camping site or as a cabin;

“Vehicle” has the meaning given to it by section 2 of the National Parks Act 1952.

3. The camping area shall be divided into sites each of which shall have a separate distinguishing number.

4. No persons shall camp upon or use any part of the motor camp otherwise than under the authority of a permit issued pursuant to and subject to the provisions of this bylaw.

5. The board or any person acting with its authority may from time to time in writing appoint any person to be a permit officer for the purposes of this bylaw.

6. Applications for permits shall be made personally or in writing to a permit officer and shall state the period for which the permit is desired and shall be accompanied by the amount of the fee payable for such permit for that period.

7. (a) The fee payable for a permit shall be as prescribed from time to time by resolution of the Board.

(b) If after the issue of or during the currency of a permit the fee for a permit is increased the permit holder shall pay such increased fee from the date when the increase becomes effective.

8. Every permit shall be issued by a permit officer and shall set out the period and the number of the site for which the permit is issued, the name and address of the permit holder, the number of persons entitled to use the site, the registered numbers of the vehicles entitled to be on the site, and the conditions under which the permit is issued.

9. The permit officer is entitled to refuse to issue a permit to any person whom in his discretion he considers unsuitable to hold a permit.

10. Every vehicle within the motor camp shall at all times carry and display a current warrant or certificate of fitness.

11. No person unless he is a permit holder or a person lawfully accompanying the holder and included in the permit or a bonafide visitor to the permit holder shall be in the motor camp between the hours of 8 p.m. of one day and 7 a.m. of the following day without the permission of a permit officer.

12. No person shall:

(a) Use any site or allow any site to be used for any illegal purpose or otherwise than as a camping site.

(b) Use any site or allow any site to be used in any way that may be a nuisance, annoyance, or inconvenience, to or in any way interfere with the quiet and comfort of any other occupier of a site in the motor camp.

(c) Deposit any rubbish in any part of the motor camp except in receptacles provided for the purpose.

(d) Wilfully or carelessly damage, injure, deface, or destroy any building, vehicle, tent, or other article or thing belonging to the Board or to any permit holder and situated within the motor camp.

13. Bylaw 4 of the Tongariro National Park Bylaws 1974 shall be read subject to this bylaw and in case of conflict this bylaw shall prevail.

The foregoing bylaw was made by resolution of the Board at a meeting held at Mount Ruapehu on 26–28 November 1976.

J. S. MACLEAN, Chairman.

M. C. BRITTON, Secretary.

The foregoing bylaw of the Tongariro National Park Board was approved by the National Parks Authority at a meeting at Wellington on 23 and 24 March 1977.

P. H. C. LUCAS, Deputy Chairman.
