Decision of the Indecent Publications Tribunal

IN the matter of the Indecent Publications Act 1963, and in the matter of an application by the Secretary for Justice for a decision in respect of Forum magazine, published by Seven Seas Publishing Pty Ltd., Volume 4, No. 8, 9, and 10, being January, February, and March 1977 issues.

BEFORE THE INDECENT PUBLICATIONS TRIBUNAL

Messrs L. M. Greig (Chairman), D. M. Wylie, Mrs L. Edmond, Mrs W. M. Rolleston.

Hearing: 14 June 1977.

Appearances: Mr D. P. Neazor for Secretary for Justice (Crown Law Office), Mr P. Downey for Seven Seas Publishing Pty Ltd. Written submissions from both parties were considered.

DECISION

These three issues are consecutive issues of the New Zealand edition of Forum. The magazine was last considered by the Tribunal in October 1976 when four issues then submitted were given a restricted classification (Decision No. 877).

Both counsel for the Secretary and the publishers submitted that these three issues are substantially similar to the four issues last considered. The Tribunal agrees with these submissions. As before, some of the material in each issue, considered in isolation, is indecent.

Considering each magazine as a whole, however, guided by the prescriptions in the Act and our view of the standards of contemporary society, we do not consider that any of the issues is indecent, either as an affront to the presently accepted standards or as being injurious to the public good.

As before, we feel that parts of the magazine are unsuitable for reading by younger people. Counsel for the Secretary for Justice asked for a restriction order which was not opposed by counsel for the publishers. Such an order is sought in order to avoid repeated submissions of the magazine to the Tribunal. We accept these practical reasons and make a restriction order for two years. During the currency of the restriction order the publishers should ensure that a clear statement, rather than a recommendation, appear on the front cover of each issue specifying the restriction.

The Tribunal finds each of these issues of Forum indecent in the hands of persons under the age of 18 years and makes a restriction order, under section 15A of the Act, in similar terms for a period of two years.

Dated this 23rd day of June 1977.

LAURENCE M. GREIG, Chairman.
