Commission of Inquiry Into Chiropractic

KEITH HOLYOAKE, Governor-General
 ORDER IN COUNCIL

To all unto whom these presents shall come, and to:

BRINSLEY DONALD INGLIS, of Wellington, One of Our Counsel Learned in the Law;

THOMAS ATHOL RAFTER, of Wellington, Scientist; and BETTY FRASER, of Wellington, Headmistress:

GREETING:

WHEREAS it is considered expedient that inquiry shall be made into the desirability of providing health benefits under the Social Security Act 1964 and medical and related benefits under the Accident Compensation Act 1972 in respect of the performance of chiropractic services:

Now therefore, I, the Right Honourable Sir Keith Jacka Holyoake, the Governor-General of New Zealand, acting by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council, hereby appoint you the said Brinsley Donald Inglis, Thomas Athol Rafter, and Betty Fraser to be a Commission to inquire into and report upon the desirability of providing health benefits under the Social Security Act 1964 and medical and related benefits under the Accident Compensation Act 1972 in respect of the performance of chiropractic services and, if thought fit that such benefits should be provided, the extent thereof:

And in considering these matters you are hereby directed to have regard to and consider:

- (a) The practice and philosophy of chiropractic, its scientific and educational basis, and whether it constitutes a separate and distinct healing art;
- (b) The contribution chiropractic could make to the health services of New Zealand;
- (c) Any other matters that may be thought by you to be relevant to the general objects of the inquiry.

And, with the like advice and consent, I hereby appoint you the said Brinsley Donald Inglis to be the Chairman of the said Commission:

And for the better enabling you to carry these presents into effect you are hereby authorised and empowered to make and conduct any inquiry under these presents, in accordance with the Commissions of Inquiry Act 1908, at such times and places as you consider expedient, with power to adjourn from time to time and from place to place as you think fit, and so that these presents shall continue in force and the inquiry may at any time and place be resumed although not regularly adjourned from time to time or from place to place:

And you are hereby strictly charged and directed that you shall not at any time publish or otherwise disclose, except to me in pursuance of these presents or by my direction, the contents or purport of any report so made or to be made by you or any evidence or information obtained by you in exercise of the powers conferred upon you except such evidence or information as is received in the course of a sitting open to the public:

And it is hereby declared that the powers hereby conferred shall be exercisable notwithstanding the absence at any time of any one of the members hereby appointed so long as the Chairman, or a member deputed by the Chairman to act in his stead, and one other member are present and concur in the exercise of the powers:

And it is hereby declared that you have liberty to report your proceedings and recommendations under this Commission from time to time if you shall judge it expedient so to do:

And, using all due diligence, you are required to report to me in writing under your hands not later than the 31st day of March 1979 your findings and opinions on the matter aforesaid, together with such recommendations as you think fit to make in respect thereof.

Given in Executive Council under the hand of His Excellency the Governor-General this 24th day of January 1978.

A. C. McLEOD,

Acting for Clerk of the Executive Council.
