Reference No. IND-5/78

Decision of the Indecent Publications Tribunal

In the matter of the Indecent Publications Act 1963, and in the matter of a reference by the Magistrate's Court at Wellington for a decision in respect to the following publication: The Joy of Sex (hard cover) published by Quartet Books Ltd. of London.

Prior to the Indecent Publications Tribunal

Messrs L. M. Greig (Chairman), D. M. Wylie, Mrs L. Edmond, and Mrs H. B. Dick.

Hearing: 25 May 1978 at Wellington.

Decision of the Indecent Publications Tribunal

Before the Indecent Publications Tribunal

Mr C. H. Togood for Police Department, Mr V. R. N. Gray for London Bookshop (in Kirkcaldies) Ltd, and Bookellers Association of N.Z. (Inc.), and Mr C. R. Pidgeon for Hutchinson Group (N.Z.) Ltd.

Decision of the Tribunal

This is the hard-bound edition of a book which in its paperback edition was considered by the tribunal on 18 August 1975 (Decision No. 848, New Zealand Gazette 6/11/1975, No. 98, p. 2455). That edition was classified as indecent in the hands of persons under 16.

The hard-bound edition has been available in New Zealand for some years and was apparently available before the paperback edition. It has been on sale since. It comes before us on a reference from the Magistrate's Court, in Wellington in connection with a prosecution of a Wellington bookseller.

It is necessary that the tribunal considers separately the hard-bound and paperback edition of a book because there may be differences in form and content, as there are in this case, and because the considerations to which we must refer under section 11 of the Act may apply in different ways and to different extent to each such edition.

In submissions made to us, emphasis was put on the effect of the offences in sections 21 and 22, in particular in exhibiting a book, in cases where age classification applied. It was our understanding of those submissions that we should have regard to these difficulties in exercising our functions under the Act.

The functions of the tribunal are clearly and exhaustively set out in section 10. These enjoin us to classify a book in one of the five ways there set out. As has been said before the tribunal has no function to police its decisions. Indeed it is not entitled to take into consideration any alleged lack of policing or any alleged prohibitory effect of any classification. Those are matters for the Legislature or the Government not for us.

The edition now before us in substance the same as the paperback edition. We have carefully considered the book anew and have had regard to each of the matters set out in section 11. While this book is sold at a higher price than the paperback edition, that is not enough in itself in these times of comparative affluence of the young, to change our view that what the tribunal decided in 1975, in respect of the paperback edition, is equally applicable now to this edition.

There are no doubt changes in the standards which apply to a book such as this but we do not believe that in the last 3 years any such changes affect our consideration of this book.

The tribunal classifies the hard-bound edition of The Joy of Sex as indecent in the hands of persons under 16.

Dated at Wellington this 30th day of June 1978.

Decision of the Indecent Publications Tribunal

In the matter of the Indecent Publications Act 1963, and in the matter of an application by Waverley Publishing
Co. Ltd. for a decision in respect to the following publication: Playgirl Erotic Fantasies, published by Playgirl Incorporated, Los Angeles.

BEFORE THE INDECENT PUBLICATIONS TRIBUNAL

MESSRS. L. M. GREIG (Chairman), D. M. Wylie, Mrs L. Edmond, and Miss W. M. Rolleston.

Hearing: 20 April 1978.

Appearances: No appearance of applicant. Written submissions considered. Mr P. E. Llar for Comptroller of Customs.

Decision

This is a glossy magazine published by Playgirl in Los Angeles and distributed by the Independent News Company, New York.

It is almost entirely composed of photographs of couples or groups of three performing sexual acts of various kinds. The highly romanticised style of photography and the careful placing of the figures make it plain that the purpose of the collection is not to inform but to titillate. Its spurious "naturalness" is in the worst of taste. The tribunal declares it to be indecent.

Dated at Wellington this 30th day of June 1978.

Notice of Decision No. 28 of the Commerce Commission

Pursuant to section 29 (11) of the Commerce Act 1975, public notice is hereby given of Decision No. 28 of the Commerce Commission, dated 28 June 1978.

This decision relates to an application by the Hotel Association of New Zealand for approval of certain collective pricing agreements and an application by the Examiner of Commercial Practices for the revocation of a deemed approval of certain collective pricing agreements. The decision relates to agreements registered with the Commission as numbers 16 and 277-294.

The Decision concludes with the following:

"Therefore the Division hereby resolves:

(i) In terms of section 29 (8) (a), to revoke the approval deemed to have been given by Decision No. 24 of the Trade Practices Act and as an alternative if that deemed approval covers the collective pricing agreements operated by the Hotel Association of New Zealand, its branches and its members in respect of the sale of beer and spirits for consumption off the licensed premises.

(ii) In terms of section 29 (4), to decline to give its approval to the collective pricing agreements operated by the Hotel Association of New Zealand, its branches and its members, the subject of applications numbered 16 and 277-294 in the Commission's register, insofar as those applications cover all liquor, within the meaning of the definition of liquor in section 2 of the Sale of Liquor Act 1962, other than beer and spirits, when sold by those members licensed under that Act, for consumption away from the premises of such members.

(iii) That it will not be contrary to this decision, nor, otherwise than to any provision of the Commerce Act 1975, for the Hotel Association of New Zealand to notify its members of any decision of the Secretary of Trade and Industry under section 89 or 90 of that Act in relations to price increases allowed on a group basis pursuant to section 93 (2) (c) of the Act.

The full text of this decision is available for inspection at the Commission's office, Sixth Floor, Chase-NBA House, P.O. Box 10-273, 163 The Terrace, Wellington, and copies may be obtained for a cost of $3.50 each.

NOTE: 1. Statement of Accounting Policies—The particular accounting policies adopted by the Bank which significantly affect the measurement and reporting of its results and financial position on an historical cost basis are as follows:

(a) Foreign Currency Translations: Overseas assets and liabilities at balance date are converted to New Zealand currency using the appropriate telegraphic transfer rates ruling at 31 March 1978.

(b) Fixed Assets and Depreciation Policy: The Bank's buildings and plant are depreciated over their economic life on a straight line basis at the rate of 1% per annum. The Bank's existing building at Auckland has been fully written off whilst preliminary expenditure on the new building is reflected at cost (see note 3). The cost of all land acquired has been written off in prior years. All other fixed assets are similarly treated in the year of acquisition.

(c) Investments: Overseas investments are shown in the balance sheet at the New Zealand equivalent of foreign currency cost, NZ$57.8 million (market value at balance date NZ$56.1 million). New Zealand investments are shown at the lower of cost or market value (market value $335.4 million).

(d) Exchange Rate Fluctuations: The profit or loss arising from appreciation or depreciation of the Bank's net overseas assets due to movements in basic exchange rates is settled with Treasury in terms of section 40 of Reserve Bank of New Zealand Act 1964. The loss in respect of the year ended 31 March 1978 is $20,026,683.

2. Contingent Liability—In respect of an investment of 250,000 £stg. 5 shares in the Commonwealth Development Finance Co. Limited of which 50p per share is unsecured. New Zealand equivalent $227,645.24.

3. Capital Commitment—Since 31 March 1978 a contract has been entered into for the construction of premises in Auckland. The contract price is $9.5 million and construction is expected to take 3 years.

E. D. VALLANCE, Chief Accountant.

REPORT OF THE AUDITORS TO THE RESERVE BANK OF NEW ZEALAND

We have audited the accounts of the Reserve Bank of New Zealand for the year ended 31 March 1978 and have obtained all the information and explanations we have required.

In our opinion the above balance sheet and profit and loss account are properly drawn up so as to give respectively a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the Bank as at 31 March 1978, and of its results for the year then ended.
