H. J. WALKER, Minister of Social Welfare.

In the matter of the Social Security Act 1964:

SPECIAL MINISTERIAL DIRECTION

To: The Social Security Commission.

I, Herbert John Walker, Her Majesty's Minister of Social Welfare, direct you, pursuant to the powers vested in me by section 5 of the Social Security Act 1964, as follows:

1. That it is the policy of Her Majesty's Government that any person now being paid National Superannuation, pursuant to section 13 of the Social Security Act 1974, who, on the 9th day of February 1977, in receipt of an Age Benefit pursuant to what was then section 16 of the Social Security Act 1974 (now repealed) shall not receive substantially less in any period of 12 months immediately preceding the date that person had received the provisions for Age Benefit not repealed.

2. That in furtherance of that policy, where it can be shown that any person now being paid National Superannuation pursuant to section 13 of the Social Security Act 1964, who was, on the 9th day of February 1977, in receipt of Age Benefit under the now repealed section 16 of the Social Security Act 1964 has to pay more terminal income tax for the year ended the 31st day of March 1978 than that person would have had to pay in respect of the same income, other than benefit, allowance, or concession or National Superannuation paid under the Social Security Act 1964, who had been able to continue receiving Age Benefit as was provided for by the now repealed section 16 of the Social Security Act 1964, it will be appropriate for you to grant that person an additional benefit under the provisions of section 61 of the Social Security Act 1964.

3. That the amount you will then pay under that grant of additional benefit shall be an amount equal to the difference between the after tax income of such a person in the financial year ended 31 March 1978 and the after tax income that they would have had if they (or she) continued to receive Age Benefit under the now repealed provisions of section 16 of the Social Security Act. In computing that amount the value of all benefits, concessions and allowances or National Superannuation paid under the provision of the Social Security Act 1964 shall be included as income.

Given under my hand this 22nd day of August 1978.

H. J. WALKER, Minister of Social Welfare.

In the matter of the Social Security Act 1964:

SPECIAL MINISTERIAL DIRECTION

To: The Social Security Commission.

I, Herbert John Walker, Her Majesty's Minister of Social Welfare, direct you, pursuant to the powers vested in me by
section 5 of the Social Security Act 1964, as follows:

1. That it is the policy of Her Majesty's Government that those persons who apply for a Domestic Purposes Benefit under the provisions of section 27b of the Social Security Act 1964, and who do not immediately qualify for that benefit because provision for maintenance required pursuant to section 27b (2) (e) of the Social Security Act 1964 has not been obtained, shall be required to consider conciliation of their matrimonial differences, and to encourage this the rate of benefit such applicant is paid should be something less than the rate which they would be entitled to under a Domestic Purposes Benefit granted under section 27b of the Social Security Act 1964.

2. In furtherance of that policy any benefit granted to such an applicant under section 61 of the Social Security Act 1964 (briefly referred to as an “Emergency Maintenance Allowance”) is to be paid at a rate not less than $16 below the relevant standard rate for a Domestic Purposes Benefit, set out in the sixteenth Schedule of the Social Security Act 1964, for the period of 26 weeks from the grant of an Emergency Maintenance Allowance.

Given under my hand this 22nd day of August 1978.

2. That in the furtherance of that policy it will be appropriate for you to grant, on application, an additional benefit under section 61G of the Social Security Act 1964 to any person who is in receipt of such a benefit or pension provided that that benefit or pension shall be an amount equal to the increase in the PAYE tax paid by such beneficiary or pensioner from the 1st day of October 1978 as a result of the revision of personal tax scales from that date.

3. That the amount which you will pay under that grant of additional benefit shall be effective from the 1st day of October 1978 to the 31st day of March 1979.
