GENERAL PUBLICATIONS

NUCLEAR POWER GENERATION IN NEW ZEALAND

H. 4. 1978

Report of the Royal Commission of Inquiry.
Sir Thaddeus McCarthy—Chairman

Part I contains an explanatory introduction to the inquiry and an "overview" which is a general discussion of the whole energy scene and a summary about the case for nuclear power in New Zealand now and in the future.

Part II seeks to gather in much more detail the information gained on the whole energy question both in New Zealand and overseas about the present state of and probable development in nuclear physics and engineering, and their expected employment in the future.

Part III takes up the proposals of the New Zealand Electricity Department relating to the introduction of a nuclear power programme.

Part IV discusses at length the consequences for New Zealand of adopting a nuclear programme.
