Race is a word which nowadays arouses strong feelings. In New Zealand there is little opposition in principle to the Government's policy of integration, but its success depends on the skill with which it is implemented.

Series No. 13. (New Zealand Institute of Public Administration.)

AGRICULTURAL STATISTICS 1975-76

(Incorporating 1973-74 and 1974-75)

DEPARTMENT OF STATISTICS

125 p. 1978

Summarises the results of three annual censuses of all farm holdings.

The report contains three main parts—

- (a) The introductory providing historical comparisons and general comments;
- (b) The tables derived from the annual censuses; and
- (c) Related farm statistics, republished for the convenience of users. These are obtained from sources other than that of the farming questionnaire. Livestock statistics are derived from a separate survey conducted at 31 January, following the census.

ART IN SCHOOLS—The New Zealand Experience

DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION

Illustrated, coloured and black and white plates.

320 p. 1978

$14.25

The books sets out to show that art is a useful part of education, that art can join in with other subjects, or can stand on its own, and that it can draw in all sorts of people—children, teachers with or without specialist training, and parents.

Outlines the programmes, projects and many different activities that have been carried out in various schools throughout New Zealand. Projects have been selected which best illustrate the topic under discussion; in no way do they represent the full range of art education, nor the finest work being done.

ATOLL

By Grahame Keen

47 p. 1976.

80c

This secondary school bulletin describes the communal life of the islanders of Fakaolo, and illuminates the difficulties, loneliness, and hardships these people face when emigrating to New Zealand. (Department of Education.)

BALLROOM DANCING—A guide book for teachers and pupils

DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION

89 p. 1978

$3

Almost all people as they move through their teens to adulthood are introduced to the undoubtedly pleasurable and universal activity, ballroom dancing.

As a new edition to the sports instruction series this book makes an effort to cover the basic steps in a variety of dances. It is intended mainly for beginners and therefore the more technical terms or finer amounts of turn and footwork are not included.

The book is well illustrated throughout with black and white photos and line drawings.

BETWEEN GOVERNMENTS AND BANKS

By Dr Hawke

244 p.

$7.50

The Reserve Bank of New Zealand was established in 1933-34 but today's institution bears little resemblance to the one that was originally constructed by the 1933 legislation. The author, with a combination of historical and economic skill, covers the story and makes an assessment of the Bank's performance to date. A valuable contribution to New Zealand's historical record.
