

THE COMMONWEALTH OF MASSACHUSETTS

1900

AN ACT RELATIVE TO THE REGISTRATION OF VOTERS AND THE QUALIFICATION OF ELECTORS.

CHAPTER 154B.

SECTION 1.

Every person who is entitled to vote at an election shall be registered as a voter in the district in which he resides.

Every person who is entitled to vote at an election shall be qualified to vote at such election if he is a citizen of the United States, and if he is a resident of the Commonwealth, and if he is of legal age, and if he is not insane, and if he is not a convict of a crime involving moral turpitude.

Every person who is entitled to vote at an election shall be qualified to vote at such election if he is a citizen of the United States, and if he is a resident of the Commonwealth, and if he is of legal age, and if he is not insane, and if he is not a convict of a crime involving moral turpitude.

Every person who is entitled to vote at an election shall be qualified to vote at such election if he is a citizen of the United States, and if he is a resident of the Commonwealth, and if he is of legal age, and if he is not insane, and if he is not a convict of a crime involving moral turpitude.

Every person who is entitled to vote at an election shall be qualified to vote at such election if he is a citizen of the United States, and if he is a resident of the Commonwealth, and if he is of legal age, and if he is not insane, and if he is not a convict of a crime involving moral turpitude.

Every person who is entitled to vote at an election shall be qualified to vote at such election if he is a citizen of the United States, and if he is a resident of the Commonwealth, and if he is of legal age, and if he is not insane, and if he is not a convict of a crime involving moral turpitude.

Every person who is entitled to vote at an election shall be qualified to vote at such election if he is a citizen of the United States, and if he is a resident of the Commonwealth, and if he is of legal age, and if he is not insane, and if he is not a convict of a crime involving moral turpitude.