Decision No. 2/79

Decision of the Broadcasting Tribunal

IN the matter of the Broadcasting Act 1976, and in the matter of a complaint by Clifford Reginald Turner pursuant to section 67 (1) (b) Warrant Holder Broadcasting Corporation of New Zealand (Television One):

BEFORE THE BROADCASTING TRIBUNAL

B. H. Slane (Chairman), Lionel R. Sceats, member; Janet C. Somerville, member.

DECISION

Mr Turner objected to "the deliberate focusing of TV cameras on a large Leopard Breweries sign during the televising of the final day of the world rowing championships on 5 November 1978".

He was informed by Television One that the leasing of space and the location of signs were entirely in the hands of the New Zealand Rowing Association. The sign was placed at the 500 metre stage which was a reference point, one of the most important in the whole course. At that point race commentators were required to go through the field in detail covering every boat and giving relative positions.

Mr Turner did not accept the explanation and lodged a complaint with the Tribunal. In order to understand the nature of the complaint clearly the Tribunal did view the tape.

Although for the reasons stated below the Tribunal has exercised its power not to determine the complaint it is appropriate to say that Mr Turner has misunderstood the Corporation's explanation to be that the incidents were accidental.
