

as relate to the hours of commencing or ceasing work, or to the issue of permits, or to the payment for overtime, or extended hours, or to holidays and half-holidays, or to the closing of shops.

SCHEDULE

1. Forty hours shall constitute a week's work, to be worked on 5 days of the week, and 8 hours shall constitute a day's work in or about the exhibition, and with the exception set out in clause 2 hereof, the daily hours shall be worked consecutively.

2. No person shall be employed in or about the exhibition for more than 4 hours without an interval of at least three-quarters of an hour for a meal.

3. (a) Any person employed during any day in or about the exhibition who is employed on that day for more than 8 hours, or before the hour of 8 a.m., or after the hour of 10.30 p.m., or on any day in excess of five days per week (whether the excess employment is in or about the exhibition or otherwise) shall be paid for the excess employment at not less than half as much again as the ordinary rate for the first 2 hours and at not less than twice the ordinary rate thereafter.

(b) Any person employed in or about the exhibition on any day that would, but for the provisions of this order, have been a whole holiday for that person by virtue of any Act, or of any collective agreements or awards shall be paid for all work done on that day at not less than twice the ordinary rate, whether the work is performed wholly in or about the exhibition or otherwise. Provided that nothing in this subclause shall be deemed to deprive any person of any other payment for the said holiday to which he is entitled under any Act or collective agreements or awards.

4. No assistant under 18 years of age shall be employed in or about the exhibition after the hour of 10.30 p.m.

5. For the purposes of the enforcement of any collective agreements or awards, any provision of which has been suspended by this order, any officer of the industrial union or association concerned who is authorised in writing in that behalf by the union or association shall be entitled to interview at his place of employment any person employed in or about the exhibition under those collective agreements or awards at such time or times as may be agreed upon between the officer and the employer of that person, and for this purpose any such officer shall be entitled at any time to have access to the register of passes issued by the promoter.

6. Nothing in this notice shall be deemed to affect any provisions in any collective agreements or awards requiring workers subject to such collective agreements or awards to be members of a union.

Dated at Wellington this 25th day of June 1979.

(2) This notice shall come into force on the 9th day of July 1979.

2. This notice shall apply to all fresh, frozen, smoked, or otherwise preserved fish, including shellfish, sold by retail (otherwise than by auction), but shall not apply to canned fish or to cooked fish other than cooked crayfish.

3. Every retailer whose main business is the retail selling of fish to which this notice applies shall keep prominently displayed in his shop window, so as to be easily read by passers-by, also in his shop in a prominent position, so as to be easily read by customers, a price list showing in respect of each kind of fish offered, exposed, or available for sale:

- (a) The price per kilogram; or
- (b) Where, in accordance with the customary practice within the trade, the fish is offered or exposed for sale other than by weight, the price per unit.

4. Every retailer of fish to which this notice applies, other than a retailer whose main business is the retail selling of fish, shall keep prominently displayed so as to be easily read by customers, and in close proximity to all fish to which this notice applies and which is offered, exposed, or available for sale, a price list showing in respect of each kind of fish offered, exposed, or available for sale:

- (a) The price per kilogram; or
- (b) Where, in accordance with the customary practice within the trade, the fish is offered or exposed for sale otherwise than by weight, the price per unit or lot.

5. Every retailer, who offers, exposes, or has available for sale any fish to which this notice applies, shall keep in a prominent position in such proximity to the fish to which it relates as to be obviously in relation thereto a ticket, placard, or label showing in legible and prominent characters the kind of fish, the state of preparation, and

- (a) The price per kilogram; or
- (b) Where, in accordance with the customary practice within the trade, the fish is offered or exposed for sale otherwise than by weight, the price per unit or lot.

6. In any case where fish to which this notice applies is not readily identifiable with the description thereof set out in the price list displayed, the retailer shall keep in a prominent position in such proximity to the fish to which it relates as to be obviously in relation thereto a ticket, placard, or label giving a description so that it is readily identifiable with the description set out in the price list.

7. The Control of Prices (Ticketing of Fish) Notice 1974* is hereby revoked.

Dated at Wellington this 25th day of June 1979.
