HEALTH ADMINISTRATION IN NEW ZEALAND

Edited by R. J. Latimer

522 p. eight maps, illustrated. $2
Despite the importance of health and health services to the individual and to the community, few are well informed about either the policy issues or the basic organisation of health services. The authors of the papers presented here examine the administration of the health services from different viewpoints and bring together in one place the considerations which are important in their provision. (New Zealand Institute of Public Administration.)

HIGH COUNTRY SHEEP STATION
