NOTICE OF PRIVATE BILL

THE ANZ BANKING GROUP (NEW ZEALAND) BILL

Australia and New Zealand Banking Group Ltd., hereby gives notice that it intends to apply for leave to bring in the above-mentioned Private Bill during the present session of Parliament.

The objects of the Bill are to enable Australia and New Zealand Banking Group Ltd. (hereafter called "the existing Bank") to form a company limited by shares under the Companies Act 1955, having among its objects the carrying on in New Zealand of the business of banking and to effect the transfer to that company of the undertaking in New Zealand of the existing Bank.

The company so formed shall be called ANZ Banking Group (New Zealand) Ltd. (hereafter called "the new Bank").

The principal purpose for which the new Bank is to be incorporated will be to acquire the whole of the assets and undertaking of the existing Bank relating to its business in New Zealand, and to carry on in New Zealand and elsewhere the business of banking in all its branches and departments.

As the New Zealand Companies Act 1955, in section 458, provides that no company having for its object the carrying on in New Zealand of the business of banking shall be registered under that Act, the formation of the proposed new banking company can be made possible only by special legislation, and legislation is also the only means by which the transfer of the undertaking of the existing Bank to the new Bank can be effected efficiently and instantaneously, and without interference with the conduct and continuity of the business of banking.

The Bill is divided into two parts. The first part contains the provisions enabling the existing Bank to form and incorporate the new Bank under the Companies Act 1955.

The second part is designed to transfer the undertaking of the existing Bank relating to its New Zealand business to the new Bank, followed by provisions for the transfer of the New Zealand assets of certain other subsidiaries.

On the appointed day all the assets liabilities and obligations of Australia and New Zealand Banking Group Ltd., will be assets liabilities and obligations of the new Bank. Customers of the existing Bank will have the same relationship with the new Bank as they had with the existing Bank.

The promoter of the Bill is Australia and New Zealand Banking Group Ltd.

Communications or notices to the promoter can be sent to Messrs Bell Gully and Co., Solicitors, 109-117 Featherston Street, Wellington (P.O. Box 1291).

A copy of the Bill can be inspected at the offices of Messrs Bell Gully and Co. at the address stated during normal office hours on every weekday other than Saturday. 4397

THE CHARITABLE TRUSTS ACT

NOTICE OF APPLICATION FOR APPROVAL OF A SCHEME UNDER PART III OF THE CHARITABLE TRUSTS ACT 1957

NOTICE is hereby given that the New Zealand Insurance Co. Ltd., have filed in the office of the Supreme Court at Wellington, an application for approval of a scheme by which a bequest to the New Zealand Insurance Co. Ltd., under the will of Janet Firth, late of Wellington, widow, deceased, for the purposes of establishing a scholarship at the Cobden Public School to be known as the Joseph P. Firth Scholarship which was to be awarded to male pupils who on the last day of December next following the award would be not less than 12 years of age and had been pupils of the school during the whole of the scholastic year in which the award was made, be applied for the purposes of a scholarship to be awarded to male pupils of Greymouth Intermediate School who would meet the age qualification upon the same terms as set out in the original trust under the will and who have formerly been pupils for at least 1 full scholastic year at Cobden School and who have been pupils of Greymouth Intermediate School during the whole of the scholastic year in which the award is made upon the grounds that it is impossible to apply the said funds to the award of a scholarship to male pupils of Cobden School of the said age and the applicants believe the new purpose would best give expression to the intention of the above-named testatrix.

Copies of the scheme and the report of the Attorney-General thereon may be inspected free of charge at the office of the Registrar of the Supreme Court, Wellington, and at the offices of Messrs Phillips, Shayle-George and Co., Solicitors, Government Life Building, Customhouse Quay, Wellington.

The date proposed for the hearing of the application is the 19th day of September 1979.
