

And whereas it appears that doubts may arise as to the privileges and immunities which may be enjoyed by representatives and members of their official staffs attending the said Conference,

Now therefore pursuant to section 11 of the Diplomatic Privileges and Immunities Act 1968, the Minister of Foreign Affairs hereby directs that every representative of the said Governments (other than the Government of New Zealand) and the members of their official staffs attending the said conference shall be accorded the following privileges and immunities:

(a) Every representative of the said Governments (other than the Government of New Zealand) shall be accorded—

(i) The like immunity from jurisdiction and the like inviolability of their official documents as is conferred upon a diplomatic agent by virtue of Part I of the Diplomatic Privileges and Immunities Act 1968; and

(ii) The like exemption from taxes as is conferred upon a diplomatic agent by virtue of Part I of the Diplomatic Privileges and Immunities Act 1968, save that the relief allowed shall not include relief from Customs and excise duties or sales tax except in respect of goods imported as part of their personal baggage.

(b) All the members of the official staff of any such representative shall be accorded—

(i) The like immunity from jurisdiction and the like inviolability of their official documents as is conferred upon members of the diplomatic staff of a diplomatic mission by virtue of Part I of the Diplomatic Privileges and Immunities Act 1968; and

(ii) The like exemption from taxes as is conferred upon members of the diplomatic staff of a diplomatic mission by virtue of Part I of the Diplomatic Privileges and Immunities Act 1968, save that the relief allowed shall not include relief from Customs and excise duties or sales tax except in respect of goods imported as part of their personal baggage.
