POLICIES FOR REGIONAL DEVELOPMENT IN NEW ZEALAND*Edited by G. A. Town*

124 p.

$3.50

In this book, the authors discuss the criteria which they feel should determine any sound policies in the field of regional planning and development. Although many different points of view are presented, there is unanimity that economic considerations alone should not dictate future policy. Essentially, it is for New Zealanders to consider all the relevant factors and decide what pattern of development they wish to see emerge. This book is intended as a constructive contribution to the public debate currently underway. Series No. 17. (New Zealand Institute of Public Administration.)
