

“(a) On that part of the order completed within one calendar month from the date of the first transaction carried out against the order. The balance of the uncompleted order shall after one calendar month from the date of the first transaction be deemed to be a new order; and

“(b) In the case of an order to buy comprising both shares and rights to a new issue the money payable on application for the new issue would make the shares arising from the issue of the same paid up value as the quoted shares.

“Provided further that in the case of an order when the consideration is not more than $20 total brokerage shall be $2. “And provided further that in the case of an order when the consideration is more than $20 but less than $200 total brokerage shall be $5.

“(2) When a client gives an order to resell or repurchase securities in the one company where the consideration exceeds $5,000 and the order is completed within thirty days of the date on which the securities were purchased or sold the following rates shall apply to the resale or repurchase:

“(i) On the first $5,000 of consideration: 1.25%.

“(ii) On the next $45,000 of consideration: 0.75%.

“(iii) On that amount by which the consideration exceeds $50,000: 0.5%.

“Provided that for any balance of an order to resell or repurchase uncompleted within one calendar month brokerage shall be charged at the rate set out in clause (1), and such balance shall have the benefit of concessional rates provided in such clause if applicable.

“Provided further that the concessional rates in this clause shall apply in the case of a resale only when the client, unless otherwise arranged, has within five business days of the date of the original transaction, made payment in full of the purchase price and other charges for the securities, and in the case of a repurchase has made delivery within 10 days of the date of the original transaction.

“(3) On securities of the types set out in clause (1) of this rule, which are not listed or rights of which quotation has not been authorised, the rates of brokerage shall be as prescribed in clause (1) plus 50 percent.

“(4) The rates of brokerage prescribed in the preceding clauses of this rule shall be charged to both buyer and seller.

“(5) Subject to the provisions of rule 121 (2) and subject to the laws of the country wherein the register of securities dealt in is situated, stamp duty and transfer fees shall be paid by the purchaser. Where the transaction is for less than a marketable parcel as defined by rule 111, the buyer and/or seller shall pay such stamp duty and fees as may be prescribed from time to time by odd lot regulations of the Association.”
