Bylaw Regulating Heavy Traffic Loadings on the Gates of Haast Bridge on No. 6 State Highway (Blenheim-Invercar-gill)

Pursuant to the National Roads Act 1953 and the Transport
Act 1962, the National Roads Board makes the following bylaw.

BYLAW
1. This bylaw may be cited as National Roads Board Bylaw
1980 No. 1.
2. This bylaw shall come into force on the day after its publication in the Gazette.
3. In this bylaw the expression “heavy motor vehicle” has the meaning assigned to it in the Transport Act 1962.

Dated at Wellington this 25th day of February 1980.
F. J. TOURELL, Secretary.
In the matter of the Cinematograph Films Act 1976, and in the matter of an application by Twentieth Century Fox Film Corporation (N.Z.) Ltd., for a review of the feature film I'm Not Feeling Myself Tonight,

THE CENSORSHIP BOARD OF REVIEW

Mr A. B. Beatson, S.M. (Chairman); Dr R. A. Sharp; Mr S. G. Lambert; Mr R. Tanner; Mrs M. T. Cole; Mrs U. A. Ewert; Mrs V. Forbes; and Professor E. M. Dalziel, C.B.E.

Date of Review: 31 August 1979.

Decision of the Films Censorship Board of Review

Having conducted a review of the film I'm Not Feeling Myself Tonight, on the 31st August 1979, and acting in accordance with its authority under the Cinematograph Films Act 1976, the Films Censorship Board of Review decided unananimously that the film should not be approved for exhibition.

The Board was thereby in agreement with the decision of the Chief Censor of Films.

The story revolves around the doings of a young sex researcher who manufactures a portable ray machine which encourages uninhibited sexuality. The film depicts the bizarre results of the use of the machine on a number of people who are unaware of its effects.

The Board was unanimous in its view that the film was truly ill-made and little more than an "exploitation" production.

In reaching its decision as to whether or not the film was likely to be injurious to the public good (section 26 (2)) the Board took into particular account the matters specified in subsections b, c, and d. Little time had to be spent on reaching the decision that the film had no artistic merit and was of no value or importance for social, cultural, or other reasons.

As for the film's treatment of sex and indecent or offensive behaviour, the Board did not consider in fact that, taken as a whole, the film was unduly sexually explicit, particularly when compared with other films which have been passed both by the Chief Censor and the Board of Review itself. But considerable concern was usefully felt about the way in which the film denigrated women in particular, and was explicit, degrading, particularly as its only real appeal would be to the public good. However, the overall effect of the film, with the device which has been referred to was used. It was felt that the film simply offered simulated sex for people to leer at and that women were treated simply as sex objects. There were no meaningful relationships between any of the characters (in contrast to the last film dealt with by the Board: The Fruit is Ripe). It was also considered by all members of the Board that the film would be offensive to a large number of people of any age.

In coming to its conclusion the Board was careful not to refuse to approve the film for exhibition simply because it was in bad taste. Bad taste, of course, is not a factor which was of no value or importance for social, cultural, or other reasons.

4. No person shall take or drive any heavy motor vehicle or combination of heavy motor vehicles on to the Gates of Haast Bridge on No. 6 State Highway (Blenheim-Invercargill) while there is another heavy motor vehicle or combination of heavy motor vehicles on that bridge.

5. Every person who commits an offence against this bylaw is hereby liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding two hundred dollars ($200).

This bylaw was made by resolution duly passed at a meeting of the National Roads Board held at Wellington on the 20th day of February 1980.

F. J. TOURELL, Secretary.

THE CHANGING VEGETATION OF MOLESWORTH STATION NEW ZEALAND 1944-1971

NEW ZEALAND DEPARTMENT OF SCIENTIFIC AND INDUSTRIAL RESEARCH, BULLETIN 217

118 p. 1976. $4.50

Totalling 700 square miles, the broad expanse of high altitude Crown land known as Molesworth Station is the largest single farm unit in New Zealand. In 1938, after 70 years of leasehold farming the Molesworth and Tarnside runs reverted to the Crown in a badly depleted state. This is an account of the recovering of the land at Molesworth for productive farming and should prove very interesting and informative to all high country farmers.

CONSERVING NEW ZEALAND'S HERITAGE

By P. H. C. Lucas

94 p. 1970. $1.40

In 1969 Mr Lucas went on a study tour of national parks and allied areas in Canada and the United States. On his return to New Zealand he wrote this report as a suggested guideline for national parks and reserves administrators. Many of the problems experienced by older countries could be avoided by a careful study of their mistakes and with this in mind Mr Lucas has concluded each section with a summary of lessons for New Zealand. Not only of interest to the general public but also to park administrators and planners, tourist promoters, historians, and archaeologists.

ECONOMICS OF THE NEW ZEALAND MAORI

By Raymond Firth

519 p. 1972. $8.75

The Maori people are honourably known far outside the confines of their New Zealand home. Acknowledged to be one of the finest of the native races within the British Commonwealth, they have long been celebrated for their splendid physical appearance, their proud bearing, their aristocratic spirit, their fluent oratory, and above all for their prowess in war. This book contains an account of the social and economic organisation of the Maori people before their organisation was transformed by contact with Western civilisation. It is a major scientific contribution to economic anthropology and has now become a standard work.

EDUCATIONAL PLANNING IN NEW ZEALAND

432 p. 1974. $7.50

This book contains the papers presented at a seminar on educational planning held at Victoria University of Wellington from 14 to 19 May 1972. This seminar was intended to lay the foundation for the seminars which would probe education problems in depth. Three main themes were chosen for the seminar, "Educational planning in its relation to national economic planning", "Planning the structure and contents of education", and "Information and techniques for educational planning". Edited by W. L. Renwick and L. J. Ingham, this book will interest a wide range of people.

EFFECTIVE DISCUSSION

52 p. $1.15

Although originally written for staff training purposes in the Public Service, this booklet became popular with outside organisations as a guide to the conduct of meetings. It describes planning and organising both large and small group discussions and contains many useful hints which will help the discussion leader to get the best out of his group, whether he is an old hand or a novice at leading discussion. Also included are lists of books for further reading and recommended films. (State Services Commission.)
