Extending the Time Within Which the Commission of Inquiry Into Rescue and Fire Services at International Airports May Report

KEITH HOLYOAKE, Governor-General

ORDER IN COUNCIL

To all unto whom these presentations shall come, and to—

John Samuel Shephard, Esquire, upon whom has been conferred the Air Force Cross, of Papakura, retired airline pilot;

Ian Gordon Lythgoe, Esquire, Companion of the Most Honourable Order of the Bath, of Waitakere, company director; and Derek Arthur Varley, Esquire, of Wellington, Fire Force Commander of the New Zealand Fire Service.

GREETING:

WHEREAS by an Order in Council made on the 3rd day of September 1979, you, the said John Samuel Shephard, Ian Gordon Lythgoe, and Derek Arthur Varley, were appointed to be a Commission to inquire into and report upon the adequacy of the rescue and fire services operated by the Ministry of Transport at the Auckland, Wellington, and Christchurch International Airports:

And whereas by the said Order in Council you were required to submit your report not later than the 31st day of March 1980;

And whereas it is expedient that the time for so reporting should be extended as hereinafter provided:

Now therefore, pursuant to the Commissions of Inquiry Act 1908, I, the Right Honourable Sir Keith Jacka Holroyde, the Governor-General of New Zealand, acting by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council, hereby extend until the 30th day of November 1980 the time within which you, the said John Samuel Shephard, Ian Gordon Lythgoe, and Derek Arthur Varley, are so required to report, without prejudice to the continuance of the liberty conferred upon you by the said Order in Council to report your proceedings and findings from time to time if you should judge it expedient so to do, and hereby confirm the said Order in Council and the Commission thereby constituted, save as modified by these presents.

Given in Executive Council under the hand of His Excellency the Governor-General this 24th day of March 1980.

Conventions

1. Her Majesty or the Governor-General and all officers in the Government service acting in the execution of their duty shall at all times have free ingress, passage, and egress into, over and out of the areas described in the First Schedule to this order without payment.

2. Nothing herein contained shall authorise the Council to do or cause to be done anything repugnant to or inconsistent with any law relating to the Customs, or with any regulation of the Minister of Customs, or with any provision of the Harbours Act 1950, or its amendments, or any regulation made thereunder that are or may hereafter be, in force.

3. The powers, functions, duties, and authorities conferred by this order in council shall not apply to those portions of the foreshore required for the securing of the shore end of any telegraph cables that are at present or may be at any time laid down within the area described in the First Schedule to this order.

4. The Council may enclose any part or parts of the foreshore described in the First Schedule hereto for the purpose of holding athletic sports or games and may, by bylaw, fix a charge for admission to such enclosed part or parts; provided that the total number of days on which such enclosures are made shall not exceed 6 in any 1 year.

5. Nothing herein contained shall authorise the Council to remove or cause to be removed any stone, sand, shingle, or shells without the consent of the Minister being first obtained.

6. Suitable worded signs shall be erected at the main public access ways to the foreshore and waters described in the First and Second Schedules to this order indicating that control has been granted to the Council, pursuant to sections 8a and 16 of the Act and that bylaws are in force.

7. Subject to the provisions of section 8a of the Act, the Council for and within the area of water described in the Second Schedule to this order:
   (a) May by bylaw do anything which a harbour board may do by bylaw under section 232 of the Act;
   (b) May appoint officers to police the bylaws and define or limit their powers and duties.

8. All money received by the Council in respect of the foreshore and waters described in the First and Second Schedules to this order, in exercise or performance of the powers, functions, duties, and authorities conferred on it by this order, shall, subject to the deduction of any expenditure incurred by the Council in exercise or performance of those powers, functions, duties, and authorities conferred on it by this order, shall be applied to the improvement of facilities on or in respect of the foreshore and water activities and not otherwise.

9. Bylaws made by the Council under the authority of this order in council shall not come into force until they have been approved by the Minister, by notice in the Gazette.

10. The said rights, powers, and privileges may be at any time resumed by the Governor-General without payment of any compensation whatever, on giving to the Council 6 calendar months notice in writing. Any such notice shall not otherwise.

11. Powers, functions, duties, and authorities conferred on it by this order, shall, subject to the deduction of any expenditure incurred by the Council in exercise or performance of the powers, functions, duties, and authorities conferred on it by this order, shall be applied to the improvement of facilities on or in respect of the foreshore and water activities and not otherwise.

PLANTS IN NEW ZEALAND POISONOUS TO MAN

By Jose Stewart. Revised by H. E. Connor

$2.25

This revised edition of Mrs Stewart’s book, which was first published in 1964, is a handy colourful guide to the 50 or more plants in New Zealand known or suspected to be toxic to man. The plants are listed in alphabetical order by their common names and each entry has a colour photograph identifying the poisonous part of the plant. The botanical name, a general description of the plant, the toxin, and the symptoms of poisoning are also given. Plants that are toxic if eaten, and touch irritants are dealt with in separate sections. A general instruction on what to do if poisoning occurs or is suspected is featured prominently at the beginning of the book for ready access in an emergency. The material in the booklet is useful, succinct, and attractively presented. Although it has wide appeal generally, it is particularly valuable to parents of the young and curious.

POLICIES FOR REGIONAL DEVELOPMENT IN NEW ZEALAND
Edited by G. A. Town
124 p. $3.50
In this book, the authors discuss the criteria which they feel should determine any sound policies in the field of regional planning and development. Although many different points of view are presented, there is unanimity that economic considerations alone should not dictate future policies. Essentially New Zealanders have to consider all the relevant factors and decide what pattern of development they wish to see emerge. This book is intended as a constructive contribution to the public debate currently under way. Series No. 17. (New Zealand Institute of Public Administration.)
