

NORMAN HARCOURT CHAPMAN, Esquire, of Wellington, retired Public Accountant; and LESLIE GEORGE CLARK, Esquire, of Coromandel, Economic Consultant:

GREETING:

WHEREAS it is deemed expedient that an inquiry should be made into the freight forwarding industry and matters incidental thereto:

Now, therefore, pursuant to the Commissions of Inquiry Act 1908, I, The Right Honourable Sir Keith Jacka Holyoake, the Governor-General of New Zealand, acting by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council, hereby appoint you, the said Bruce Bornholdt, Norman Harcourt Chapman, and Leslie George Clark, to be a Commission to inquire into and report upon—

- (a) The effect the operations of the freight forwarders have had on the profitability of the New Zealand Railways;
- (b) The amount of revenue which the freight forwarders derive from their arrangement with New Zealand Railways;
- (c) Whether the existing contractual arrangements between New Zealand Railways and the freight forwarders are financially beneficial to the New Zealand Railways;
- (d) Whether the contractual arrangements with freight forwarders have adversely affected the development of New Zealand Railways as a public service;
- (e) Whether the freight forwarding industry is beneficial to both New Zealand Railways and the nation;
- (f) Any other matters that may be thought by you to be relevant to the general objects of the inquiry:

And with the like advice and consent I hereby appoint you, the said BRUCE BORNHOLDT, to be the Chairman of the said Commission:

And for the better enabling you to carry these presents into effect you are hereby authorised and empowered to make and conduct any inquiry under these presents, in accordance with the Commissions of Inquiry Act 1908, at such times and places as you deem expedient, with power to adjourn from time to time and from place to place as you think fit, and so that these presents shall continue in force and the inquiry may at any time and place be resumed although not regularly adjourned from time to time or from place to place:

And you are hereby strictly charged and directed that you shall not at any time publish or otherwise disclose, except to me in pursuance of these presents or by my direction, the contents or purport of any report so made or to be made by you or any evidence or information obtained by you in exercise of the powers hereby conferred on you except such evidence or information as is received in the course of a sitting open to the public:

And it is hereby declared that the powers hereby conferred shall be exercisable notwithstanding the absence at any time of any one member of the Commission hereby appointed, so long as the Chairman and one other member are present and concur in the exercise of such powers:

And it is hereby further declared that you have liberty to report your proceedings and recommendations under this Commission from time to time if you shall judge it expedient so to do:

And using all due diligence you are required to report to me in writing under your hands not later than the 30th day of November 1980 your findings and opinions in the matters aforesaid, together with such recommendations as you think fit to make in respect thereof.

Given in the Executive Council under the hand of His Excellency the Governor-General this 3rd day of June 1980.

P. G. MILLEN, Clerk of the Executive Council.
