KEITH HOLYOAKE, Governor-General

ORDER IN COUNCIL

To all to whom these presents shall come, and to:

The Honourable JOHN RAYMOND MILLS, C.M.G., of Wanaka, formerly a temporary Judge of the Supreme Court:

GREETING:

Whereas allegations of impropriety have been made in respect of the approval by the Marginal Lands Board of an application under the Marginal Lands Act 1950 by James Maurice Fitzgerald and Audrey Fitzgerald, both of Wellington:

And whereas the question whether such allegations or any of them are true is a matter of public importance:

Now, therefore, pursuant to the Commissions of Inquiry Act 1908, I, The Right Honourable Sir Keith Jacka Holyoake, the Governor-General of New Zealand, acting by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council, hereby appoint you, the said The Honourable John Raymond Mills, to be a Commission to inquire into and report upon—

- (a) Whether there was any impropriety on the part of any person in relation to the reference on any occasion of the application to the Board for consideration:
- (b) Whether there was any impropriety on the part of any person in relation to the circumstances in which, or the basis on which, the application was considered on any occasion:
- (c) In respect of the approval of the application by the Board,—
  - (i) Whether there was an error of jurisdiction or otherwise; and

(ii) Whether there was any impropriety by way of departure from previously accepted criteria for granting loans or from what have been previously accepted as proper conditions of loans, or otherwise:

- (d) Whether any amendment to the legislation governing the functions, procedures, and practices of the Marginal Lands Board is necessary or expedient.

And for the better enabling you to carry these presents into effect you are hereby authorised and empowered to make and conduct any inquiry under these presents, in accordance with the Commissions of Inquiry Act 1908, at such times and places as you consider expedient, with power to adjourn from time to time and from place to place as you think fit, and so that these presents shall continue in force and the inquiry may at any time and place be resumed although not regularly adjourned from time to time or from place to place:

And you are hereby strictly charged and directed that you shall not at any time publish or otherwise disclose, except to me in pursuance of these presents or by my direction, the contents or purport of any report so made or to be made by you, or any evidence or information obtained by you in exercise of the powers hereby conferred upon you, except such evidence or information as is received in the course of a sitting open to the public:

And it is hereby declared that you have liberty to report your proceedings and recommendations under this Commission from time to time if you shall judge it expedient so to do:

And, using all due diligence, you are required to report to me in writing under your hand not later than the 30th day of September 1980 your findings and opinions on the matters aforesaid, together with such recommendations as you think fit to make in respect thereof.

Given in Executive Council under the hand of His Excellency the Governor-General this 7th day of July 1980.

A. C. MACLEOD,
Acting for Clerk of the Executive Council.
