The substance of the complaint lodged by Mr Cullimore arises from a series of talk-back programmes broadcast by Radio Pacific in February and March 1980, involving (among others) Mr Tim Bickerstaff and Mr Glyn Tucker in regard to the feature or programme called Tucker's Turf Analysis. It appears that perhaps over a period of weeks Mr Cullimore was a frequent caller of this programme. Mr Cullimore became concerned as to the legality of the programme and lodged a formal complaint with the Minister of Internal Affairs concerning a possible breach of the provisions of The Gambling and Lotteries Act 1977, by Radio Pacific Limited (hereinafter referred to as "Radio Pacific") in running the Tucker's Turf Analysis programme.

Subsequently as a result of an investigation carried out by the Department of Internal Affairs, that Department came to the conclusion that the programme (in the opinion of the Internal Affairs Department) was not a legal lottery as apparently it was not conducted for an authorised purpose as defined in section 2 of the Act. As a result Radio Pacific ... subsequently cancelled the programme.

Mr Cullimore in his letter to the Broadcasting Tribunal of the 3rd June 1980, lists six areas where he considers Radio Pacific was in breach either of the Radio Standards and Rules, or of recognised standards of objective journalism, or of the provisions of section 95, Broadcasting Act 1976. This decision deals in turn with each of those six areas.

Two parts of Mr Cullimore's complaint can be dealt with under the one heading and they are the alleged impolite language and abuse directed towards Mr Cullimore by Mr Bickerstaff and in particular the use of the words "you are a bloody bore" by Mr Bickerstaff during one talk-back programme. Radio Pacific ... in its letter to the Tribunal of the 27th May 1980, admitted that Mr Bickerstaff did indeed use the words complained of by Mr Cullimore but this Committee accepts that Mr Cullimore's name was not mentioned during that particular exchange and Mr Cullimore himself confirms this. The Tribunal, after considering all the information before it, feels that the language used was within the context of the particular programme concerned. Mr Bickerstaff has a reputation as a commentator and talk-back programme host for using what could be called strong and direct language. He has a reputation for being brief and to the point and the use of colourful language seems to be a feature of his particular programme. A programme of this type would have a limited appeal and a limited audience. Mr Cullimore must have been aware of Mr Bickerstaff's reputation as he (Mr Bickerstaff) has been on the broadcasting scene in Auckland for several years and his reputation is well-known. In getting involved in this programme Mr Cullimore himself feels that he expected this type of reaction from Mr Bickerstaff having regard to the nature of the programme and in particular having regard to Mr Cullimore’s attitude to the Tucker’s Turf Analysis programme. The Committee has come to the conclusion that the language while border-line was within the context of the programme concerned and it concludes that there was no breach of Rule 1.1 (b) the rule in point, which provides that broadcasters are required “to take into consideration currently accepted norms of decency and taste and language and behaviour in the mind of the context in which any language or behaviour occurs”.

Secondly, Mr Cullimore complains about a breach of an agreement by Radio Pacific . . . to the conclusion from the information before the Committee that Radio Pacific did indeed agree to allow Mr Cullimore to put forward his comments on the programme and it appears that this agreement was subsequently not adhered to by Radio Pacific . . . . The Committee as a consequence concluded that Radio Pacific . . . appears to have been in breach of Rule 1.1 (e) of the General Standards of Radio Standards and Rules in that in this respect it did not “balance the programme”. It appears from the information before the Committee that Radio Pacific did indeed agree to allow Mr Cullimore to take part in the programme and in the view of the Committee it appears that Mr Cullimore to present another point of view. There appears to have been no valid reason why Radio Pacific . . . could not have honoured that agreement.

Thirdly, conclusion therefore, the Committee does find that Radio Pacific was in breach of Rule 1.1 (e) of the Radio Standards and Rules in that it did not deal justly and fairly with (Mr Cullimore) in that once having agreed to allow Mr Cullimore to take part in the programme it does not have honour to the second occurrence of the word “report” rather than the word “investigation”. The Committee on this point finds that it was up to Radio Pacific . . . to provide an accurate and impartial gathering and presentation of news according to recognised standards of objective journalism. The Committee has carefully considered Mr Cullimore’s allegations under this heading but it cannot find any clear evidence that Radio Pacific . . . was in breach of the Act in respect of the Radio Standards and Rules in that it appears to have made two particular points and the first one concerns Radio Pacific’s assurance in its letter to the Broadcasting Tribunal of the 27th May 1980, that it cancelled the Tucker’s Turf Analysis programme as soon as it heard that a complaint had been lodged with the Department of Internal Affairs. Mr Cullimore maintains that it did not in fact do this but con­ tinued to run the programme for another few days after the complaint was sent to the Broadcasting Tribunal of the 27th May 1980, in a discussion between Mr Bickerstaff and Mr Tucker, there was reference to the name “Cullimore”. This is confirmed in the letter from Radio Pacific to the Broadcasting Tribunal of the 27th May 1980, and the Committee finds that even though probably inadvertent on Mr Tucker’s part such a reference to Mr Cullimore by name was indeed a breach of that provision of the Act. Although Mr Tucker may not perhaps have the experience of Mr Bickerstaff in broadcasting he still, nevertheless, has had considerable experience and showed himself not to have the ability experience in this area and should not have referred to Mr Cullimore by name at a time when the Tucker’s Turf Analysis programme was under investigation by the Department of Internal Affairs as to its legality.

The fourth part of Mr Cullimore’s complaint refers to his allegation that Radio Pacific . . . was in breach of section 95 (1) (c) of The Broadcasting Act 1976, in that private radio stations in maintaining standards generally acceptable to the community in their programmes in particular have to have regard to “the accurate and impartial gathering and presentation of news according to recognised standards of objective journalism”. The Committee has carefully considered Mr Cullimore’s allegations under this heading but it cannot find any clear evidence that Radio Pacific . . . was in breach of the Act in respect of the Radio Standards and Rules in that it appears to have made two particular points and the first one concerns Radio Pacific’s assurance in its letter to the Broadcasting Tribunal of the 27th May 1980, that it cancelled the Tucker’s Turf Analysis programme as soon as it heard that a complaint had been lodged with the Department of Internal Affairs. Mr Cullimore maintains that it did not in fact do this but continued to run the programme for another few days after the complaint was sent to the Broadcasting Tribunal of the 27th May 1980, in a discussion between Mr Bickerstaff and Mr Tucker, there was reference to the name “Cullimore”. This is confirmed in the letter from Radio Pacific to the Broadcasting Tribunal of the 27th May 1980, and the Committee finds that even though probably inadvertent on Mr Tucker’s part such a reference to Mr Cullimore by name was indeed a breach of that provision of the Act. Although Mr Tucker may not perhaps have the experience of Mr Bickerstaff in broadcasting he still, nevertheless, has had considerable experience and showed himself not to have the ability experience in this area and should not have referred to Mr Cullimore by name at a time when the Tucker’s Turf Analysis programme was under investigation by the Department of Internal Affairs as to its legality.

The Committee in terms of section 91 (3) Broadcasting Act 1976, recommends to Radio Pacific that it write a letter of apology to Mr Cullimore covering the three areas where it considers that Radio Pacific . . . was in breach of The Broadcasting Act set out what action the Committee can take on any complaint either to the Broadcasting Tribunal and Rules and/or The Broadcasting Act 1976, a copy of such letter of apology to be furnished to the Committee for its record.

The Committee would like to make some final observations: Firstly, it considers that if Radio Pacific had perhaps been a little more responsive and sensitive in its attitude to Mr Cullimore and had taken a more cautious approach to the complaint on this point it could have been a little more gracious in the loss of its pro­ gramme. Secondly, it does not seem to be of any great significance. The second point that Mr Cullimore makes seems to refer to the use by Radio Pacific . . . of the word “report” rather than the word “investigation” as an approach to the fact that Radio Pacific . . . should have used the word “investigation” rather than the word “report” in their news broadcasts and that in doing so the report rather than the investigation (Mr Cullimore’s complaint refers to his alter attitude to the Tucker’s Turf Analysis programme as being illegal and further that he was obtaining a “legal ruling” from the Minister of Internal Affairs. It is of course not possible for the Minister of Internal Affairs to give such a ruling—only the High Court of competent jurisdiction. All that the Minister of Internal Affairs could do, and this he did, was to seek an opinion from his Department and that opinion showed that the Tucker’s Turf Analysis programme probably did not constitute a legal lottery because it was not conducted for an authorised purpose as defined in section 2 of The Gaming and Lotteries Act 1977. As the Minister quite rightly pointed out in his letter to Mr Cullimore of the 5th May 1980, Radio Pacific would have been quite within its rights to seek other advice on the legality of the scheme and even indeed seek a Court ruling as to whether the scheme was in fact illegal.

Finally, Mr Cullimore also complains that Radio Pacific was in breach of section 95 (1) (f) of The Broadcasting Act 1976, in that it did not have regard to the privacy of the individual, and in particular during a talk-back programme of 18 March 1980, in a discussion between Mr Bickerstaff and Mr Tucker, there was reference to the name “Cullimore”. This is confirmed in the letter from Radio Pacific to the Broadcasting Tribunal of the 27th May 1980, and the Committee finds that even though probably inadvertent on Mr Tucker’s part such a reference to Mr Cullimore by name was indeed a breach of that provision of the Act. Although Mr Tucker may not perhaps have the experience of Mr Bickerstaff in broadcasting he still, nevertheless, has had considerable experience and showed himself not to have the ability experience in this area and should not have referred to Mr Cullimore by name at a time when the Tucker’s Turf Analysis programme was under investigation by the Department of Internal Affairs as to its legality.

Finally, Radio Pacific was in breach of The Broadcasting Act, section 95 (1) (f) in that reference to the name “Cullimore” was made in a broadcast at a time when the legality of the Tucker’s Turf Analysis programme was under investigation by the Committee as a consequence concluded that Radio Pacific . . . could have been a little more gracious in the loss of its pro­ gramme as being illegal and further that he was obtaining a “legal ruling” from the Minister of Internal Affairs. It is of course not possible for the Minister of Internal Affairs to give such a ruling—only the High Court of competent jurisdiction. The Films Censorship Board of Review

Messrs A. B. Beaton, D.J. (chairman), Mrs M. Cole, Mrs U. M. Ewert, Mrs V. A. Forbes, Mr B. S. G. Lambert and Mr J. M. Price.

Date of Review: 20 June 1980.

Decision of the Films Censorship Board of Review

Pursuant to section 82 of the Cinematograph Films Act 1976, Twentieth Century Fox Film Corporation Ltd. applied for a review of the feature film Shame of the Jungle which had been rejected for exhibition by the Chief Censor of Films. There were no submissions.

Having conducted a review of the film, and in accordance with its authority under section 84 (5) of the Act, the Board rejected the film for exhibition according to the criteria of section 26 (2) for lack of artistic merit (b), and the extent and degree to which, and the manner in which, the film depicts sex and offensive language (c).

The film is an animated feature satirising the traditional exploits and character of Tarzan. Its use of language and explicit treatment of sex was felt to be gratuitous to the degree of prurient exploitation.

The artistic merit of the film was considered and although it was conceded that the animation is meritorious and some of the humour acceptable, it was not felt that this compensated for the general crudeness of the humour and the language. It was also felt that the film's novelty lies mainly in its vulgarity. Consideration was also given to the possibility of setting an unfortunate precedent by approving such indecent material for exhibition.

It was noted that the film had been advertised as part of the programme for the Auckland Film Festival. The Board had been asked to review the film for general exhibition or alternatively for film festival purposes and, therefore, did consider its suitability for a limited film festival audience. Even in this limited context the film was considered unsuitable for exhibition for the reasons outlined in relation to its general exhibition.

Number and Title of Specification
DZ 6701 Code of practice for street and road lighting.

This code of practice is a radical departure from New Zealand and British Standards currently in use in that it is based on lighting performance. Its aim is to make public thoroughfares, rural and urban, as safe as possible at night with maximum efficiency in terms of cost and energy use.

It is a revision of NZ CP 53 and NZ CP 54.

All persons who may be affected by this publication and who desire to comment thereon, may obtain copies at $3.50 each from the Standards Association of New Zealand, World Trade Center, 15-23 Sturdee Street (or Private Bag), Wellington.

The closing date for the receipt of comment is 17 October 1980.

DIRECTIONS FOR EDUCATIONAL DEVELOPMENT
A REPORT PREPARED BY THE ADVISORY COUNCIL ON EDUCATIONAL PLANNING
141 p. 1975. $2.50
This report marks the culmination of the activities of the Educational Development Conference. The Advisory Council has recommended the directions it considers New Zealand education should go in the next 5 or 10 years.

Five principal areas are identified as requiring attention. Education is seen as a lifelong activity, and emphasis is therefore placed on the "foundations"—early childhood education, the school curriculum and special provisions for special needs, and parent education. Special attention is given also to the relationship between the school and the community, the need for close mutual support and co-operation, including understanding and respect for minority cultures.

A key to the quality of education is the people involved in it. Teacher education, the availability of advisory and ancillary staff, as well as resources for materials and research, have a chapter devoted to them.

Since education is seen as a lifelong activity, this is considered at some length. Facets such as accessibility, transfer of credits, and the role of existing institutions are discussed, together with ways in which continuing education could be provided for the whole community.

In discussing the administration and organisation of education the principle followed is the maximum devolution of authority and responsibility to the agencies and the community, as for instance, school committee and district level.
