Authorisation of Erection of Experimental Traffic Signs Overriding Traffic Signals

PURSUANT to subclause (1) of regulation 127A of the Traffic Regulations 1976* the Minister of Transport hereby gives the following notice.

NOTICE

1. The erection and maintenance for experimental purposes of the traffic signs described in the First Schedule to this notice, at the locations described in the Second Schedule to this notice is hereby authorised upon the terms and subject to the conditions hereinafter appearing.

2. Any driver approaching an intersection controlled by traffic signals on a roadway at which a traffic sign authorised by this notice has been erected may make a left turn while the traffic signals controlling traffic on that roadway display a full red light provided that that driver first stops and then gives way to all other traffic and pedestrians.

3. This notice shall expire two years after the date of this notice.

FIRST SCHEDULE

THE traffic signs authorised to be erected by this notice shall read "Left Turn on Red after Stop and Give Way". They shall be at least 850 mm high and 450 mm wide and be attached to the primary traffic signals on the left of the approach lanes to the intersection.

There may be erected additional information signs, for pedestrians at the intersection reading "left turn on red operating" and for motorists approaching the intersection reading "traffic research".
