

Price Order No. 225 (Cream Delivery Margins and Allowances)

I, Desmond James Gasson, being duly authorised by the Secretary of Trade and Industry in this behalf, do hereby make the following price order in accordance with the provisions of section 89 of the Commerce Act 1975, and section 25 (3) of the Milk Act 1967 (as amended by section 6 of the Milk Amendment Act 1980).

1. This order may be cited as Price Order No. 225.

2. In this order, unless the context otherwise requires:

"The Act", means the Milk Act 1967:

"Commercial-user sale", in relation to any cream, means any sale of that cream (other than a shop-dairy sale) to any person for resale, for human consumption on premises occupied by him (whether in the form in which it was sold to him or not, and whether separately or in combination with any other substance):

"Consumer sale", in relation to any cream, means any sale of that cream for human consumption (other than a shop-dairy sale) for purposes other than resale:

"Cream", has the same meaning as in the Food and Drug Regulations 1973:

"Milk District", means a milk district constituted and declared as a milk district under the Act:

"Shop-dairy occupier", means a person who is the occupier of a shop in which he sells cream in the form in which it was sold to him, for human use or consumption off the premises of that shop:

"Shop-dairy sale", means the standard rates of margins and allowances payable in respect of the delivery of cream specified in the Schedule hereto:

"Vendor", means a milk vendor within the meaning of the Act.

3. This notice applies to all cream sold for human consumption in any milk district.

4. The standard rates specified in the Schedule hereto are hereby fixed with effect from and including the 1st day of October 1981.

5. No additional charge shall be made for the exchange or other handling of bottles provided for the delivery of cream, or for any other service supplied in respect of such bottles or their contents.
