Decision of the Indecent Publications Tribunal

IN the matter of the Indecent Publications Act 1963, and in the matter of an application by the Comptroller of Customs for a decision in respect of the following publication: Kama Sutra, published by Howard Productions Pty. Ltd.

BEFORE THE INDECENT PUBLICATIONS TRIBUNAL

Judge W. M. Willis (chairman),

Mesdames H. B. Dick, L. P. Nikera, and

Messrs J. V. B. McLinden, and I. W. Malcolm.

Hearing: 2 December 1980.

Appearances: Mr P. E. F. M. Leloir for the Comptroller of Customs. Written submission by Waverley Publishing Co. Ltd.

Decision

A sample copy of Kama Sutra was imported commercially by parcel post and seized at Auckland in September 1980. As the importer has disputed forfeiture the Customs Department has referred the publication to the Tribunal for classification prior to the commencement of condemnation proceedings pursuant to the Customs Act 1966.

Mr Leloir has contended that the publication is a cheap, abridged version of the original classic version translated by Sir Richard Burton. He states that many of the pictures do not appear to relate to the text and appear to be designed merely to assist the commercial exploitation of the text by means which are indecent.

The Waverley Publishing Co. made a short written submission in which they suggest that an age restriction would be appropriate.

Kama Sutra is a paperback publication, based on the original classic translated by Sir Richard Burton. Samples of the writings have been selected, to depict various techniques of achieving sexual pleasure, used in conjunction with a series of photographs, to give an impression that the publication is an accurate precis of the original classic. In fact this has not been achieved.

In 1976, in Decision No. 863, the Tribunal ruled on a similar edition, that although the Kama Sutra itself is not indecent, the particular edition under consideration was indecent. In view of the nature of the publication, there is a distinct lack of honesty of purpose.

Accordingly, we consider that the present edition should be similarly classified, and rule that this particular publication of the Kama Sutra is indecent.

Dated at Wellington this 18th day of March 1981.
