DECISION OF FILMS CENSORSHIP BOARD OF REVIEW

Pursuant to section 82 of the Cinematograph Films Act 1976, Amalgamated Theatres Limited applied for a review of the feature film Scum which had been rejected for exhibition by the Chief Censor of Films.

Having conducted a review of the film and in accordance with its authority under section 84 (5) of the Act, the Board approved the feature film for exhibition only to persons 20 years of age and over.

The Board approved the trailer for Scum for exhibition only to persons 18 years of age and over.

The Board considered that the accuracy of the film's portrayal of the English borstal system and the likelihood of New Zealand audiences relating what they saw in Scum to the borstals in this country was important in the determination of whether or not the film could be injurious to the public good.

It was considered that the film did not exploit violence for its own sake but portrayed experiences and incidents accurately. The domineering life in the film is in no way appealing. The Board considered that the film is more likely to act as a deterrent.

With respect to the trailer for Scum it was noted that it was not as graphic or as shocking as the feature film and that therefore an R. 20 certificate in line with the feature, would not give an accurate indication of the content of the trailer.

Date of review: 2 May 1980.

A. B. BEATSON, Chairman.

DECISION OF THE FILMS CENSORSHIP BOARD OF REVIEW

Pursuant to section 82 of the Cinematograph Films Act 1976, 20th Century Fox Corporation Ltd. applied for a review of the feature film Nightmares which had been rejected for exhibition by the Chief Censor of Films.

The film, a horror story, portrays a series of sexual murders performed by a psychologically disturbed young woman. The Board found the film tasteless, repetitive and totally devoid of artistic merit. The violence it contained was explicit and completely gratuitous.

The Board unanimously agreed to refuse to approve the film Nightmares for exhibition.

Date of review: 20 March 1981.

Industries Development Commission Notice No. 1981/7—Study of the New Zealand Writing Instruments Industry

1. In a letter of 12 December 1980, the Minister of Trade and Industry requested the Commission to undertake a study of the above industry and recommend a plan for its future development. The Minister's letter reads:

"Following a report by the Emergency Protection Authority, I have decided that urgent action is necessary to protect the domestic writing instrument industry."

"Accordingly, I request the Commission:

(a) To inquire into and report on the present situation of the industry engaged in the manufacture and servicing in New Zealand of the writing instruments of Tariff Headings 98.03, 98.04, and 98.05; the potential for its development; and its potential to contribute to New Zealand's economic growth, taking into account the interests of the manufacturers, users and the distributive trade;

(b) To recommend lines of development considered desirable and the nature and extent of assistance, if any, by way of protective devices or otherwise it considers appropriate for this industry; and in doing so to review in terms of section 10 of the Industries Development Commission Act 1961, the temporary protection accorded the industry under Import Control Exemption Notice (No. 20) 1980, published in the New Zealand Gazette, of 4 December 1980, following a report of the Emergency Protection Authority;

(c) To report on the above inquiry by 4 December 1981; and

(d) When making its inquiry and report the Commission may take evidence on and otherwise have regard to any other matter or product it considers relevant to the inquiry under reference, or exclude from its consideration any matter or product it considers not relevant."

2. It should be noted that the reference covers all writing instruments of Tariff Headings 98.03, 98.04, and 98.05 and is thus wider than the recent inquiry carried out by the Emergency Protection Authority into this industry. The content of these Tariff headings is set out in the Schedule to this notice.
3. The Commission invites parties who have an interest in any of the areas covered by the above reference to register that interest in writing with the Commission not later than 7 May 1981.

4. Registration should include the following:
   (a) Name and address of party registering interest.
   (b) Area or areas of interest.
   (c) Status of interest under one or more of the following classes:
      - New Zealand manufacturer of goods under reference;
      - New Zealand manufacturer using goods under reference;
      - Overseas manufacturer;
      - Importer;
      - Distributor;
      - Raw material supplier;
      - Trade organisation;
      - Trade union;
      - Other (specify).

5. The Commission will, as soon as possible after 7 May, distribute to registered parties copies of detailed guidelines for submissions and advise the timetable and procedures it intends to follow in undertaking this study.

6. It is anticipated that these procedures will involve the preparation and public distribution of a draft report based on the submissions received in response to guideline questionnaires. This draft report will then be the subject of a public hearing following which the Commission will prepare its final report.

Recently, investment has been very low, compared with that prevailing from the mid-1950s to the mid-1970s. If we are to take advantage of the opportunities for development before us, there will have to be a resurgence of fixed investment for the next few years. It is needed in plant, machinery, and equipment for the development of our energy resources.

One of the aims in letter writing is to get ideas across to the reader clearly and briefly. But do letters always say what is meant? Even if they are clear to the writer, will the reader understand them easily? If you are still using the old cliches of “acknowledging receipt of”, “according to our records”, and “enclosed please find” it is almost certainly time to change your attitude to writing living letters.

THE MAORI AS HE WAS
By Elsdon Best
295 p. 1974 reprint. $6.50 plus 70c p & p
Fifty years of public demand since this book was first published resulted in the need for reprints in 1934 and 1952. The text has been reproduced unchanged but the originals of some of the figures could not be traced and these have been replaced with similar illustrations. There have been many advances in our knowledge of Maori life since this book first appeared. The work of numerous ethnologists, and more recently archaeologists, has critically examined many of the earlier concepts, confirming some, disproving others, and altering others to varying degrees. No one has yet produced a synthesis of the results of all this scholarship and there is still nothing as comprehensive as this book of Best's to give a general account of the Maori. This book was first published when Best was 68 and thus represents the accumulated knowledge of a lifetime. It has now become a classic introduction to Maori life. Its continued availability should help the reader to obtain a basic background to old time Maori life which can be extended by further reading.

MOA-HUNTER PERIOD OF MAORI CULTURE

ROGER DUFF—CANTERBURY MUSEUM BULLETIN No. 1

$17.50 plus $1.25 p & p

This book deals with the most important site yet investigated and in its discussions it traverses most of the New Zealand archaeological field.

A chance discovery in 1939 by a 13-year-old boy revealed the grave of a chief in the gravels of the Wairau boulder bank. The grave, goods, and bones of the ancient chief, prone in his gravel grave, with skull directed towards the setting sun, spoke with more authority regarding his race than the many years in close contact with the Maoris of the Urewera, he spent the last 20 years of his life writing particularly of the social customs and beliefs of the Maori people. There is still a demand for the many monographs written by Elsdon Best and the following titles have been reprinted without alteration to the original text (National Museum):

No. 1. Some Aspects of Maori Myth and Religion. 43 p. $1
No. 2. Spiritual and Mental Concepts of the Maori. 37 p. $1
