Amendment to Rules of Whangarei Acclimatisation Society

Pursuant to section 29 of the Wildlife Act 1953, the Minister of Internal Affairs hereby gives notice that he has approved the following rules, made by the Whangarei Acclimatisation Society to stand in place of rules 8 (1), 8 (2), 9 (a), 9 (c), 9 (d), 9 (f), 16, and 19, respectively as originally approved by the Minister of Internal Affairs on 29 January 1958:

Rule 8 (1) The society shall be governed by a council of 11 members and a president, all of whom shall be elected in accordance with these rules. The council members shall be elected from and by the general membership by secret ballot at the annual general meeting and shall not be eligible for election unless they have their permanent and principal or only place of residence within the district.

Rule 8 (2) The council shall hold a meeting as soon as convenient after the holding of the annual general meeting to elect from among its number a president. The president shall, so long as he continues to be a member of the society, hold office for a term of 1 year. He shall be eligible for re-election, subject to his term of office as councillor not having expired, or if that term of office has expired, subject to his re-election as a councillor by ballot of the general membership. If for any reason the position of president becomes vacant, the council may elect 1 of its number to be president for the unexpired term.

Rule 9 (a) The secretary shall no later than the first Monday in March insert in 1 or more daily newspapers, circulating in the district a notice inviting nominations for the council, and stating the time of closing for such nominations.

Rule 9 (c) At the annual general meeting the members to fill the vacancies shall be elected by ballot from the nominees by vote of members of the society present at such meeting in the following manner:

The secretary shall hand 1 voting paper containing the names of all nominees to each member present, who shall leave uncancelled the name of any nominee for whom he desires to vote, and shall strike out the name of any nominee for whom he does not desire to vote. Each member shall vote for the full number of candidates required to fill all vacancies, and any voting paper failing to comply with this requirement shall be classified as invalid.

Rule 9 (d) Upon the completion of voting the voting papers shall be folded up and handed to the scrutineers appointed by the meeting. The scrutineers shall then open the papers in the presence of each other count the ballots and certify the result of the ballot to the chairman, who shall forthwith announce to the meeting the names of the members successful in the ballot and declare them elected to the council for the prescribed term of office. Such election will be effective as from the conclusion of the annual general meeting.

Rule 9 (f) If the number of nominations for the council does not exceed the number required, the chairman of the meeting shall, at the annual general meeting declare those nominees duly elected, and if there remain any vacancies on the council, the members present at that meeting may elect from those members present sufficient members to fill the vacancy or vacancies.

Rule 16 The annual general meeting of the society shall be notified to members by notices placed in any daily newspaper circulating within the district. Such notices shall appear at least 14 clear days prior to the annual general meeting, and shall give notice of the business to be transacted at the meeting.

still nothing as comprehensive as this book of Best's to give can be extended by further reading.

The work of numerous ethnologists, and more advances in our knowledge of Maori life since this book first when Best was 68 and thus represents the accumulated know­ledge of a lifetime. It has now become a classic introduction to Maori life. Its continued availability should help the reader to obtain a basic background to old time Maori life which may be extended by further reading.

The text has been reproduced unchanged but the originals is meant? Even if they are clear to the writer, will the reader understand them easily? If you are still using the old cliches of "acknowledging receipt of", "according to our records", and "enclosed please find" it is almost certainly time to change your attitude to writing living letters.

As an authority on Maori culture, the author has compiled in this publication a comprehensive record on the use of the different storage structures, etc., used by the Maori in former times. By studying items pertaining to Maori technology it is hoped this will throw light upon many phases of the social life and customs hitherto unknown. This bulletin is No. 5 in the Dominion Museum Series.

This report on earthquake microzoning is aimed at dividing extensive areas of Wellington into smaller zones and is intended as a guide only to planning of future redevelopment. The detailed studies of local geology and soil investigations have resulted in an Earthquake Microzone Map of Wellington. This map accompanies this publication. This report is the first one of a series. Later it is the intention to microzone other areas in the same way.
